

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY MAY 12, 1904.

THIS PAPER is kept on file at F. C. Baker's advertising agency, 121 Commerce Street, San Francisco, California, where contracts for advertising can be made for it.

A victor woman is inconsolable over the death of her pet dog and her friends fear that she may lose her reason. That would be impossible. A woman who is so wrapped up in a pet poodle as to become hysterical over its death could no more lose her reason than a country editor could lose $10,000,000, and for the same reason—she hasn't it to lose.

A society has been formed in the east having for its object the elimination of the use of the word "damn" from our vocabulary. The effort is bound to fail at this time. If a man cannot use that word when his eye falls on the atrocities which pass for war pictures in the daily papers he will say something worse. There are other expletives that sound far more blood curdling than plain damn.

Mac, age 10, has a neighbor age 10, of the opposite sex. Their wisdom, individual or combined, is more than the sum of their years. Recently the neighbor met Mac with "We've got a new boy baby at our house, Mac." "That so?" said Mac: "that's good! How are all of them?" "Oh the baby's all right but mamma appears to be laid out."

The office of district judge is one of the most important to the people, of any which is to be filled at the coming June election. In this district the nominees are W. L. Bradshaw, the present incumbent of the office and John A. Collier, of Fossil. Judge Bradshaw has occupied the bench for a number of years and has behind him a record which, for judicial ability, fairness and business methods, is second to that of no other circuit judge in the state. The business methods which he has applied to the handling of matters in his court has kept the expenses down to the lowest possible figure while his ability and strict impartiality are proverbial all over the district. The office is not a political one and we believe the voters of this district will endorse Judge Bradshaw's past record by the same heavy majority which has been his in the past. Mr. Collier is an excellent gentleman and were the office other than a judicial one and of such high importance he would no doubt receive a nice complimentary vote in this and Wheeler counties. As it is, however, we predict that the people will, without regard to party, stay with the man who is known, who has been tried and who has not been found wanting.

OUR SENTIMENTS.

The Light acknowledges receipt of a couple of ten day tickets to the St. Louis exposition, also about $75 worth of advertising matter which the manager of that institution wanted us to run free, thinking "it might be of interest to our readers." This is an old gag among the promoters of various enterprises to send the editor a 50 cent ticket and expect $50 worth of advertising in return. The editor of this great family journal is not going to the fair; neither is the "devil." We haven't time, and if the fair people want any advertising in the Light they will have to send along a check large enough to cover our bill.—Long Creek Light

One of the greatest blessings a modest man can wish for is a good reliable set of bowels. If you are not the happy possessor of such an outfit you can greatly improve the efficiency of those you have by the judicious use of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are pleasant to take and agreeable in effect.

Whooping Cough.

"In the spring of 1901 my children had whooping cough," says Mrs. D. W. Capps, of Capps, Ala. "I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy with the most satisfactory results. I think this is the best remedy I have ever seen for whooping cough." This remedy keeps the cough loose, lessens the severity and frequency of the coughing spells and counteracts any tendency toward pneumonia.
