Popular Ocean Beach.

Many of the Interior planning to spend their vacation at the Sea Shore.

Hundreds from Eastern Oregon and Washington are spending their vacation at the North Pacific Coast and it is safe to say that this popular resort of the North Pacific Coast will be visited by many more this year than ever within its history. The change from a large and dry interior altitude to the sea level is most beneficial.

The trip on the Willamette and Columbia rivers, out of Portland, is one long to be remembered, the usual heat of a summer after noon being tempered by a gentle breeze, freighted with the aroma of pine trees and seasoned with salt sea air. The scenery includes much that is beautiful. Leaving Portland on one of the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's palatial river steamers, (the J. J. Porter being the queen of river flyers) the excursionist is carried through its waters where fly the flags of many nations. The twelve miles on the Willamette river are quickly made, and, after saluting the government light house marking the junction of the two rivers, the boat swings into the Columbia for the trip down stream. The morning is clear (generally so from June until September), and a magnificent and inspiring sight meets the eye as the sweep around the bend is made—five snow capped peaks, Mount Hood, Mount Adams, Mount Saint Helen, Mount Rainier and Mount Jefferson, looming into view—a sight worth traveling thousands of miles to see. On down the picturesque river, past villa, saw mills, fishing fleets, salmon canneries, perpendicular basaltic bluffs, and pretty hillside houses, the boat pursues its way. The majestic sweep of the river is awe inspiring. Gradually the shores grow farther apart and, scarcely realizing that the five hours have been consumed in making the trip, the boat steams alongside the wharf at Astoria.

One hour from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia, past scores of salmon traps and nets and as many white winged sail boats, leave the passengers at Liveaway, Baker's Bay where connection for beach points is made with trains of the Ilwaco Railway & Navigation Company, whose cars stand on the wharf awaiting the steamer. North Beach, where the surf is breaking, is unexcelled, at low tide is from 200 to 400 feet wide, twenty-three miles long and so compact that a carriage or wagon scarcely leaves a trace upon it. Scattered along the beach are hundreds of cottages and hotels in which summer life is an unending round of pleasure from the opening to the closing of the season. The much dreaded "Resort Mosquito" is unknown and no venereal disease or insect pest is found. The thermometer rarely goes above 80 degrees in July or August, but light overcoats, fire morning and evening and blankets at night are comfortable during the season.

Rates for accommodations at North Beach points are reasonable and vary to suit the visitor. At European hotels and lodging houses rooms range from twenty-five cents to one dollar a day; at restaurants, meals run from two-fifty to five cents; and at the American plan hotels, the charges range from one dollar a day to two dollars and upward.

Dozens of delightful side trips may be taken from the beach into a country of wild and picturesque beauty, quiet and secluded among hills and forests, with hunting and fishing in native haunts; the United States Life Saving stations and light houses, cranberry farms, oyster beds, salmon fishing grounds and canneries.

For particulars about the trip to North Beach call the nearest O. R. & N. agent, or send two cents in stamps to A. L. Craig general passenger agent, Portland, for "Recreational Resorts," which tells all about the Columbia river summering places.

For the World's Fair and Louisiana Purchase Exposition at St. Louis, May to November, 1904, the O. R. & N. Co. have named the following rates from Arlington: To St. Louis and return $61.35. To Chicago and return $61.35. To Chicago and return via St. Louis $67.60. Children of half fare age 1/2 of above rates. Tickets will be on sale May 11, 12 and 13; June 16, 17 and 18; July 1, 2 and 3; August 8, 9 and 10; September 5, 6 and 7; October 3, 4 and 5. Limited as follows: Passengers will have the privilege of starting on any date which will enable them to reach their destination within ten days from date of sale. Return limit ninety days from date of sale. Stopovers will be allowed in either direction within the transit limit.

D. TIERNEY, Agent.

 AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.
 Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and malted cereal of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by both old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
