

THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 8, 1904.

Monday was Labor Day and it was observed in Gilliam county by everybody working. No time for picnics here.

We have received a copy of a little book of facts concerning Yamhill county which will certainly "touch the right spot" with people who are seeking information regarding that section of the state. The booklet is of the vest pocket size and contains a mass of interesting information in a condensed form—just what tourists and home seekers will appreciate. We have the book through the courtesy of Mr. Geo. G. Birrel, the efficient assistant secretary of the Oregon Information Bureau. Mr. Birrel makes the timely suggestion that now is an excellent time for Gilliam county to provide something of a similar nature concerning this county, for general distribution. About 10,000 people have passed through the Bureau in the Union Depot building in Portland during the past year seeking information about Oregon and Mr. Birrel believes that he could be of great service to Gilliam county if he only had some reliable literature and definite information to put in the hands of prospective settlers. The suggestion is a good one and should be acted upon by some of our wide awake citizens.

Fearful Odds Against Him.
Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J. H. Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicine gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies: "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by Condon Pharmacy.

Those who are supposed to know assure us that the county is "safe." A good, thorough-going, dependable Democrat, Roosevelt, has been nominated by the Republicans, and a staunch, reliable, conservative and safe Republican, Parker, has been nominated by the Democrats. It is a grab-bag proposition this year. You can shut your eyes, take your choice and be satisfied.—William Bittle Wells in September Pacific Monthly.

Sour Stomach.
When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, sour stomach is likely to follow and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let 5 hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the sour stomach may be avoided.

Once I read some poetry
(I like it now and then),
Which said the saddest words
Are these: It might have been.
That poet-fellar's wrong,
Which I think you'll admit.
The saddest words are these:
(Confound 'em!) "Please remit."

A Reply.
In regard to the card published last week by the Baptist Ladies Aid Society I desire to say that when a detached thought is taken from a discourse and then told as a public statement, it is hardly fair to the speaker. I read in my bible that we should "Abstain from all appearance of evil." As to whether dancing is wrong or not, is a many answered question. But the large majority of the "sinners" say a Christian cannot dance. Possibly they are mistaken, but it is not a means of spiritual culture at least. My rule is that anything that makes me love my bible less, that makes it more difficult to pray, should be eschewed. Without making recriminations on any church, my statement was that failing to live up to her privileges, the church is forced into such poverty that every means must be used to support it, and sometimes questionable means. But in reality, we must each one for himself or herself wear their own conscience. We are accountable unto God as individuals. Sincerely,
W. L. STRANGE.

Emergency Medicines.
It is a great convenience to have at hand reliable remedies to use in case of accident and for slight injuries and ailments. Agood liniment and one that is fast becoming a favorite if not a household necessity is Chamberlain's Pain Balm. By applying it promptly to a cut, bruise or burn it allays the pain and cures the injury to heal in about one-third the time usually required and, as it is an antiseptic, it prevents any danger of blood poisoning. When Pain Balm is kept at hand a sprain may be treated before inflammation sets in which insures a quick recovery.

A bumper ball game will be played on the Condon station next Sunday between members of the Barker and Cooke threshing crews when the question of which are the better ball players will be threshed out. The game promises to be a warm one and all the fans should be on hand early.

Will Hardie, the popular young sheep man, formerly of Trail Fork, who has been in Wyoming for the past 18 months returned Friday to spend a couple of weeks visiting friends. Mr. Hardie says he will never go back on old Oregon, on general principles, but that, as a sheep country, Wyoming has it beaten hands down.

Gerald Burns returned Monday from a visit with the "Old Folks at Home" and the "Girl He Left Behind Him" back in Ohio. He also visited the big St. Louis Fair and brought back with him a souvenir of the big show, a lady's gold watch which he found on the grounds where it had been dropped by somebody.

Geo. S. Kopp, civil engineer in charge of construction work on the new railroad arrived in town Monday evening to get settled for the winter preparatory to beginning his duties. Mrs. Kopp is with her husband and will spend the winter in Condon. Mr. Kopp will have charge of the first 15 miles of the work out of Condon. To a representative of the Globe Mr. Kopp stated that grading outfits are now being unloaded at Arlington and that grading will commence just as soon as the contractors can get their men and teams on the ground and their camps established. Work will be commenced simultaneously all along the line and every man and team that can be worked to advantage will be employed. Mr. Kopp will establish his permanent camp at the Hart place, 8 miles north of town that point being about mid way on his division.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.
With family around expecting him to die and a son riding for life 18 miles to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like narvelous cures of Consumption, Pneumonia, Bronchitis, Coughs and Grip prove its matchless merit for all Throat and Lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. At Condon Pharmacy.

A Bad Runaway.
Geo. S. Smith, who is operating his steam thresher in the Moore neighborhood, northwest of town, came to town Friday afternoon to have some repairs made and as he was returning just after nightfall, near the Eb Moore place, the team struck a loose wire gate which had been left open and was lying in the road. This frightened the horses and they ran away bringing up within a few rods in another wire gate which was closed. Mr. Smith was thrown to the ground with sufficient force to render him unconscious for some time while a young man named Cummins, who was with him, escaped without serious injury. The team was thrown by the wire one of the horses having his leg broken which made it necessary to kill him.
