Prof. Werhku, who conducted the Summer music school here which closed with an entertainment Wednesday evening of last week, left Friday for Portland. The Professor's instruction gave universal satisfaction to those who attended the school.

W. H. Bernhart, a converted Jew, preached in the Congregational church last Sunday morning and evening and delivered a lecture on Palestine in the same building Monday evening. He left Tuesday for Moro. Mr. Bernhart's English is somewhat broken but in his sermons and lectures he has the faculty of speaking quite plainly in the sense of calling a spade a spade.

All persons desiring to settle their accounts with us during our absence from town can do so by calling at the Condon Pharmacy where our books have been left. 101 1/2 SEASIDE ST. & ROOMS.

F. F. Scribner, of Cherokee, Iowa, arrived last week to take a position as assistant cashier in the First National Bank. Mr. Scribner is a nephew of Mr. Farnsworth, the cashier of the bank and that gentleman is well pleased to have efficient help to assist in looking after the rapidly increasing business of the bank.

The writer visited the piano sales room yesterday, in the Armory hall annex, which is in charge of Mr. J. C. Gallagher, representing Elfers' Piano house, of Portland, the largest music house in the northwest. Mr. Gallagher has in stock only the finest quality of instruments all of which are doubly guaranteed.

Things were doing at the council meeting Monday evening. An order was made closing gambling forthwith. The festive town cow was prohibited from roaming the streets and the fire blasting stove-pipe was put out of business in favor of the brick flue. An ordinance was introduced forbidding the erection of wooden buildings on eight blocks of the original townsite fronting on Main street.

Dr. Fred Gillette, of Portland, who some time ago lost four toes as a result of being run over by a street car was recently awarded $300 damages by an intelligent jury of that city. This fixes the value of a man's toes at $75 each which seems to be a big price for a poor struggling street railway company to have to pay for a little thing like that. Dr. Gillette was a former resident of this city.

The Globe regrets to learn that J. A. Douthat, for many years editor and proprietor of the Times-Mountaineer, at The Dalles, has been obliged to turn his plant and business over to his creditors and discontinue his business. Mr. Douthat is one of the ablest newspaper writers in Eastern Oregon and no citizen of The Dalles has labored more faithfully than he for the advancement and material well being of his town. It seems to be a case of lack of appreciation of meritorious newspaper work on the part of citizens of a town, of which this old world furnishes not a few.

Fred Edwards, Horace McBride and Hubert Scoggins returned Tuesday from Corvallis where they took part in the football game last Saturday between the O. A. C. eleven and a team picked from the alumni of the college. Scoggins is peeped up in great shape—looks as though he has been trying to get up a wild cat—and the other boys might be able to show up some distinguishing marks if they were to try. The alumni won a wonderful defeat the score being 11 to 0 in favor of the students but he has been saying they showed the youngsters a good time during the first half. It looks good that Gilliam county should furnish three players for the alumni team as well as the president of the Alumni Football Association, Mr. Edwards being elected to that position.

About 10 o'clock last Saturday evening a crowd of boys who had been making night hideous all the evening, raised the cry of fire thereby frightening many citizens, if not out of a year's growth, at least out of an hour's good sleep. These boys no doubt thought they were doing something marvellously smart but their parents or guardians should take the trouble of impressing the fact on their youthful minds that it was nothing of the kind. A shingle properly applied in a case like this would beat a curfew ordinance not enforced all hollow. City Marshal Ramsey heard the alarm Saturday night and got after the gang but failed to catch them. He is laying for them, however and says he will put them in cold storage for the rest of the night next time the trick is repeated.

If troubled with a weak digestion try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They will do you good.

Robbed in Portland.

L. W. Darling returned from Portland Monday where he met with the annoying experience of being robbed by a sneak thief while asleep in his room in the Perkins hotel. Mr. Darling carried with him to the city a check for $2100 which he deposited at the First National Bank, receiving in return $1000 in gold and a draft on the First National Bank of Condon for $1100. Later he paid out between $500 and $600 in a business transaction leaving him $145 gold and several dollars in silver in his pocket.

After supper he met by appointment his son-in-law and his two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Pauling, of Oswego, and Miss Stella Darling of Portland, and with them attended the theater. After the theater he accompanied his daughter to her learning place and, returning to the hotel he shortly retired. He is certain he locked his door and after undressing folded his trousers and laid them on the floor beside the bed. He is positive the money was in his pocket at that time but when he awoke in the morning it was gone. He at once notified the hotel people and later the police but says neither seemed to exert themselves to any great extent in helping him to recover his property. Payment was stopped on the draft, his loss in coin being $141. The afternoon papers published accounts of the affair in which the hotel people were quoted as being of the opinion that Mr. Darling had strayed from the respectable vicinity of Fifth and Washington streets and while wandering in forbidden paths had been parted from his money by some designing person or persons male or female. He resents this imputation and declares that every statement he has made concerning his movements that day and evening can be verified. The newspaper reports, he says, were garbled and cast unjust reflections on him as he neither drinks, gambles nor frequents questionable resorts.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

For one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substances and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. Condon Light Company.

Papers have been prepared and forwarded to Salem incorporating the Condon Light Company the incorporators being W. N. Brown, Wm. Barr and Louis Doonan. The object of the company is to engage in the electric light business and to furnish light to consumers. Mr. Doonan will be the manager of the company's business. He arrived here last Sunday from Thermopolis, Wyoming, where he has been employed for a year or more as manager of a similar plant. He comes highly recommended as a thoroughly practical man and the outlook for the new firm is very promising. The work of installing the new plant will begin in a few days.

Better Than Pills.

The question has been asked—In what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to the ordinary cathartic and liver pills? Our answer is—They are easier and more pleasant to take and their effect is as gentle and so agreeable that one hardly realizes that it is produced by a medicine. Then they not only move the bowels but improve the appetite and aid the digestion.

Many Mothers of Like Opinion.

Mrs. Pilmer, of Cordova, Iowa, says: "One of my children was subject to croup of a severe type, and the giving of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy promptly always brought relief. Many mothers in this neighborhood think the same as I do about this remedy and want no other kind for their children."
