THE CONDON GLOBE.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1904.

Wedding Bells.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, in this city, when Miss Dora, the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Downing, became the bride of Mr. A. G. Crossan, a rising young attorney of Salem. Only the immediate family of the bride and a few of her most intimate friends were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Elwan Curran, of the Congregational church. The happy couple will leave Saturday morning for Salem where they will reside. The best wishes of many friends will follow them from Gilliam and Wheeler counties.

Not A Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieve me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c. at all druggists.

Prof. B. A. Downey, who has been suffering for some time with a serious form of kidney trouble, left for Portland Sunday morning in the hope that the milder climate would benefit him. Dr. Mary Bowman accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Downey as far as Arlington. She reports that the trip was a very severe tax on the strength of the patient but that after resting a few hours he was able to be placed on the train to continue the trip to Portland. Dr. Bowman returned Monday.

While your children are attending school do not allow them to suffer with eye strain or imperfect vision. Take them to the Portland Specialists.

H. C. Winans, a practical architect and builder, arrived Monday evening and has decided to locate in Condon. Mr. Winans came to Oregon a few months ago from Junction City, Kansas, and has visited many towns in this state with a view to locating permanently but found no place that pleased him like Condon. He believes the town has a bright future and expects to become a permanent resident here. Mr. Winans' business card will be found in another column of this impression.

This is the last chance to get your wearing apparel at the Slaughter Sale in the Model Building. Prices cut in half. Buy before we leave.

Two young fellows from the railroad camp took aboard too much red liquor Sunday night and as a consequence they accepted a position on the city street cleaning department Monday and Tuesday in order to square their lines. Tuesday afternoon while the marshal was not looking they remembered some previous engagement, probably, and vanished.

Do you have glasses so you can read with comfort during the long winter months. If not, see Shillock & Brechel. Now stopping at the Condon Hotel.
