KIND WORDS HELP.

On all sides we hear complimentary comment from our friends and patrons on the improved appearance of the GLOBE since coming out in its new and up-to-date form. We appreciate these little courtesies and will endeavor to merit more of them in the future. There is still room for improvements, and we expect to continue making them as rapidly as the increased patronage which we confidently expect to continue to roll in as it is now doing, will warrant. As the public well knows this paper has never begged for patronage or support—and it never expects to—its business has enjoyed a healthy growth without that but, in view of the fact that the publisher has shown, by recent improvements made at considerable expense, that he proposes to give his readers a first-class, modern newspaper, as early as his business will warrant, it may not be out of place to remark that future improvements will depend largely on the patronage accorded the paper by the Gilliam County public. We desire to extend the subscription list until the GLOBE goes into every home in the county and to all subscribers, present or prospective, we will say that we do not ask nor will we accept your patronage as an act of charity but as a plain business proposition in which we expect to give and take value received. The GLOBE is here to give the news and work for the advancement of the county and its publisher is pleased to know that its efforts along these lines are appreciated. Kind words help and they cost nothing.

The Portland Journal rips Binger Herman up in a manner which should call for a libel suit if the congressman is guiltless of wrong doing but it's a two to one bet that there will be no legal proceedings. Binger will never bother with a little thing like vindicating his good name. He will only look virtuous, watch for the main chance, smile, palaver and be re-elected. That first congressional district is as full of political clumps as Herman is full of grafting schemes.

Miss Ware should be Ware of land grabbers in the future. She may not get off so easily again.

Horace Grooley McKinley is not much of a credit to either of his illustrious namesakes.

Attorney John Hall made a pretty good "haul" in the land fraud cases.

Puter is not so much of a "coter" as he seemed to think himself.

Henry McIntire, of Everett, Washington, is here looking for a location in the farming or dairy business.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Stevens, of Poplar Farm, were in town the first of the week.

Hon. Jay Bowerman is at The Dalles this week on legal business.

Stewart Campbell returned from Portland Sunday.

Billous Colic Prevented.

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be warded off. Hundreds of people use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by Jarvis' Pharmacy.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKES.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

ASHBURNHAM, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsent remedy. Respectfully yours,
E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A.,
Rector of St. Luke's Church,
To Chamberlain Medicine Co.
This remedy is for sale by Jarvis' Pharmacy.

T. G. Hailey, a prominent attorney of Pendleton, was here during the week attending court. He appeared as one of the attorneys for Messrs. Grant and Thomas, in their right of way cases. Mr. Hailey is an ardent friend of irrigation and recently attended the national irrigation congress at El Paso, Texas.

Be Quick.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. It never fails, and is pleasant and safe to take.
For sale by Jarvis' Pharmacy.
