Walter Grider is improving.
Mrs. Grider is still dangerously ill.
W. A. Darling returned from Tacoma Thursday.

R. W. Crane returned Thursday from month's visit at Hillsboro.

Mrs. W. Darling left Friday morning for Portland.

Dr. S. L. Luna returned Friday evening from a visit to Arkansas.

Steve Fletcher and B. K. Searcy left for Portland Monday morning.

Mrs. Ralston, of Fossil, was here Saturday looking after business matters.

Ed McKinney, the Thirtymile sheepman, was in town the first of the week.

A fine son was born to Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Cleveland last Thursday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Scrivner, of Heppner, visited her sister, Mrs. Edward Curran in this city last week.

F. Robinson, of Pendleton, came in Monday. Mr. Robinson is looking for a location for a high-class amusement house.

H. C. Strickland returned from Portland yesterday where he spent a couple of weeks visiting his family his daughters being in school in that city. While in Portland Mr. Strickland purchased a fine residence on the east side for a home for his family while in the city.

F. T. Hurlburt was over from Shaniko yesterday. Mr. Hurlburt informed the Globe that lots have been selected on Main street, north of the mill, on which a $25,000 brick hotel, with all modern improvements, will be erected in the Spring. A big hardware firm, one of the largest in eastern Oregon, is also arranging to come here in the Spring and a strong company has been organized to open a mammoth general merchandise store later in the Summer. Mr. Hurlburt is strong in the faith of Condon being the coming best town in eastern Oregon and he never loses a chance to advertise the town. Work, he says, will begin on the new bank building just as soon as the railroad can bring in the brick and other material which is already ordered.
