

PERSONAL

B. Gaffney, of Fossil, was in town Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lovegren, of Hardman, visited friends in town during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Al McConnell well known citizens of Mayville, were here Saturday evening attending the Odd Fellow's installation.

Lewis Doonar is building a telephone office on Main street adjoining the Barr Bros.' property.

J. E. Hunt, a hardware man of Portland, F. W. Godfrey, a contractor, and E. D. Cass, a brick maker, of Gervais, are here with a view to locating and are well pleased with the town.

W. A. Campbell, who was called to his old home near London, Ontario, some time ago by the serious illness of his aged mother, has returned to Condon. His mother was better when he left her. His nephew, Mr. Albert Campbell, accompanied him from the East and expects to make his future home in Oregon.

Old Winter makes a little bluff at Eastern Oregon once in a while but that is about all it amounts to. A New Yorker or a Chicagoan full of recollections of the blizzards of that country would consider our severe winter weather all the same as good old Summer time and sunshine.

The show "Do You Know" given the last two evenings at Armory hall was a success. Messrs McCowell and Pyle, who promoted the play, did good work on the stage but their somewhat erratic business management did not make them many friends in Condon. The local talent which was enlisted to assist them because of the school library benefit feature, displayed talent above the average. The squabble between the traveling showmen and the city officials over the payment of license terminated as was to be expected—the officials coming out ahead. While this matter was one entirely between the parties interested it may be remarked in passing that the showmen were off when they accused the officials of grafting. Condon is not Portland by something like 182 miles.
