

Catarrh

Invites Consumption

It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health.

It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice.

Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

SKIN DISEASES

Altoona, Pa., June 20, 1903.

I was afflicted with Tetter in bad shape. It would appear in blotches as large as my hand, a yellowish color, and scale off. You can imagine how offensive it was. For twelve years I was afflicted with this trouble. At night it was a case of scratch and many times no rest at all. Seeing the good the medicine was doing a friend who was taking it for Eczema, I commenced it, and as a result the eruption began to dry up and disappear, and to-day I am practically a well man. Only two tiny spots are left on the elbow and shin, where once the whole body was affected. I have every confidence in the medicine, and feel sure that in a short time these two remaining spots will disappear. S. S. S. is certainly a great blood purifier, and has done me a world of good. I am grateful for what it has accomplished, and trust that what I have said will lead others who are similarly afflicted to take the remedy and obtain the same good results that I have.

125 East Fifth Ave. JOHN F. LEAR.

While washes, soaps, salves and powders relieve temporarily, they do not reach the real cause of the disease. The blood must be purified before the cure is permanent. S. S. S. contains no potash, arsenic or mineral of any description, but is guaranteed purely vegetable.

Send for our book on the skin and its diseases, which is mailed free. Our physicians will cheerfully advise without charge any who write us about their case.

A Little Lesson In Patriotism

"Let our object be our country, our whole country, and nothing but our country."—Daniel Webster.

COMMODORE PORTER

It very often happens that history reverses the sentence of a man's contemporaries. Commodore David Porter was rebuked by his government in 1824; in 1829 Andrew Jackson offered to him his old place in the navy which he had lost; but since the sentence of rebuke was still unrecalled Porter refused the post.

David Porter had been a gallant officer in the war against the pirates of the Mediterranean States; he had been imprisoned when the ship Philadelphia had been captured; he had won some of the most important engagements in the war of 1812; he had shown his true patriotism upon every occasion. But when he had accepted the apologies of the authorities of Foxardo, Porto Rico, for an insult to the American officer who, under the orders of Porter, had gone to demand restitution of some confiscated American property, he had been recalled and suspended.

Years later, Thomas Hart Benton, who had been present at the trial of the sailor, thus expressed his opinion of him:

"Humanity was a ruling feature in his character," and of this he gave constant proof—humane to the enemy, as well as to his own people. Patriotism was a part of his soul."

Long ago the memory of the old patriot was vindicated. Now it is enshrined among the memories of other men who have fought and suffered contumely for their sense of duty and right.

TRUST ALL IN THE FAMILY.

Drummer Clashes with a Close Combination in Nebraska.

"Owing to a railroad smash-up I got left in a little Nebraska town one night a year ago," said the drummer, "and the way I came in contact with a trust made my hair stand up. It was a wretched town and a still worse hotel. My room was small and the bed was as hard as a board. I got up feeling mean, and after a miserable breakfast I was ready to boil over. The landlord came when the landlord presented me with a bill for $4.

"Is this correct?" I asked as I looked at the figures.

"Entirely so," he replied.

"Then you are a blamed old high-way robber!"

"The landlord had three sons, and when they began to mix in I turned on them and gave 'em some red-hot talk. When I stopped for breath the old man, who turned out to be a justice of the peace, sat down in a chair and calmly announced:

"Hear ye! Hear ye! I now declare this court duly opened. James, have you any business?"

"I have," replied his eldest son, who announced to me that he was a constable and that I was under arrest. He then made a charge against me, one of the other brothers testified as to my language, and his Honor fined me $10. As the third brother hadn't taken any part, I turned to him and sarcastically asked:

"Where do you come in?"

"Me?" he replied. "Oh, I'm the town marshal, and as you are evidently a desperate character, I shall lock you up for a couple of days and then run you out of town."

"It was a nice little family trust, you see," smiled the drummer, "and I couldn't beat it. I was locked up for forty-eight hours, but I had to pay the hotel bill and the fine, and when I was set at liberty and got my mouth open to say something else the jailer laid a hand on my arm and whispered:

"Don't do it. I am the old man's son-in-law, and if you kick against my jail he'll make your next stop twenty days."—Detroit Free Press.

Choice Made Easy.

"Young man," said the Irish magistrate to a youthful prisoner brought before him, "I would advise you to make a full confession if you want to get off with a light sentence." "And if I don't confess, then what?" asked the young man. "Oh, in that event," replied the magistrate, "I shall probably have to acquit you for want of evidence."

Expected.

Landlady—The coffee, I am sorry to say, is exhausted, Mr. Smith.
Mr. Smith—Ah, yes, poor thing, I was expecting that. I've noticed that for some time it hasn't been strong.

HAD CATARRH THIRTY YEARS

Congressman Gives Praise to Pe-ru-na for His Recovery.

EX-CONGRESSMAN MEEKISON, OF OHIO

Hon. David Meekison, Napoleon, Ohio, ex-member of Fifty-fifth and Fifty-sixth Congresses, writes:

"I have used several bottles of Peruna and I feel greatly benefitted thereby from my catarrh of the head. I feel encouraged to believe that if I use it a short time longer I will be fully able to eradicate the disease of thirty years' standing."

Hon. David Meekison began his political career by serving four consecutive terms as Mayor of the town in which he lives.

He was elected to the Fifty-fifth Congress by a very large majority, and is the acknowledged leader of his party in his section of the state.

Only one flaw marred the otherwise complete success of this rising statesman.

Catarrh with its insidious approach and tenacious grasp, was his only unconquered foe.

For thirty years he waged unsuccessful warfare against this personal enemy.

At last Peruna came to the rescue, and he dictated the above letter to Dr. Hartman as the result.

Hon. Samuel H. Mitchell, 1 Baldwin Place, Brighton, Mass., member of Council and House of Representatives for Ward 25, Boston, writes:

"I have never before found a medicine which would break up a cold so readily as Peruna, and it is also effective in curing catarrh."

"I began using Peruna and in a few weeks the catarrh had vanished."

Neglected Colds Lead to Catarrh—Neglected Catarrh Becomes Chronic.

The fact that catarrh will continue to afflict one person for thirty years shows how chronic the disease really is.

When catarrh has once fastened itself upon the human system, it shows a disposition to remain.

Catarrh is not self-curative nor is it eliminative. It continues as long as it is allowed to remain.

Catarrh is naturally a chronic disease and continues to grow worse, not better.

For thirty years Cong. Meekison had catarrh, and yet he experienced a cure by the use of Peruna.

Surely, if Peruna will cure a case of catarrh that has run thirty years, it will cure more recent cases.

There are probably ten million of uncured cases of catarrh in the United States alone.

What a multitude of victims this is! What an ocean of discouragement and unhappiness! What a Niagara of anguish and suffering!

In all probability Peruna would quickly cure every one of these cases. Taken according to the directions, Peruna rarely fails to cure any case of chronic catarrh.

Indeed, if it ever fails, it is because of some complication entirely one side from catarrh.

Troubled With Catarrh a Lifetime—Cured by Pe-ru-na.

Mrs. William Mann, 505 Comley Ave., Niles, Mich., writes:

"After having been troubled with catarrh all my life, Peruna cured me."

"I was so bad that I had lost the sense of smell when I was about fifteen years old. My head and nose were continually filled so that I had to breathe through my mouth."

"There was a constant dropping in my throat. My general health was miserable. I felt tired all the time."

"About two years ago I began to take Peruna and I feel like a different person. Now I can breathe through my nose without any trouble, and the soreness in my throat is all gone."

"Peruna has done so many wonders for me that I gave it to my little daughter who had bronchitis and it helped her. I cannot praise Peruna enough for what it has done for me."

Used Pe-ru-na as a Catarrhal Tonic.

Hon. W. E. Andrews, ex-congressman from Nebraska, writes from the Treasury department, Washington, D. C., as follows:

"I can cheerfully recommend your preparation, Peruna, as a healthful tonic, and a successful remedy for catarrh in its various forms."

We have on file thousands of testimonials like those given above. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements Dr. Hartman is constantly receiving for Peruna.
