CONDON, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 18, 1905.

NO. 9.

Judge Bellinger Dead.

Hon. Charles B. Bellinger, federal District Judge for the District of Oregon, died at his residence in Portland last Friday afternoon of complications following a severe attack of influenza.

Judge Bellinger was one of the ablest and best known jurists in the country and was as highly respected for his sterling honesty and integrity as he was well known. He was born in Knox county Illinois in 1839 and was in his 65th year. He came to Oregon when a lad of eight years and has since been a continuous resident of the state. His death will be sincerely mourned by all residents of Oregon because of his recognized ability and honesty as a federal judge. It was in his court that the investigation of the famous Oregon land fraud cases had been begun and to the arduous duties which these cases had entailed is ascribed the first break in health which resulted in his death. Many will particularly regret his demise at this time on account of these cases knowing as they do that had he lived all parties concerned would have been accorded strict justice in the trials.

Judge Bellinger was a member of the Unitarian church of Portland. He was president of the Portland Crematorium Association, of Portland, and his remains were incinerated at the Portland crematorium on Sunday.

Before his death Judge Bellinger dictated a letter to the attorney general at Washington, D. C., recommending that Judge John J. DeHaven, federal judge for the northern district of California, be appointed to try the land fraud cases.

A Trio of Horse Thieves.

John Aldridge and Roscoe Wilson, two 16-year-old boys are in the county jail, self confessed horse thieves. The boys stole two horses and saddles from the Ralston ranch, in Arlington canyon a couple of weeks ago and were captured at Prineville. When returned to Arlington by Marshall Sweetin and given a hearing they both entered a plea of guilty and were committed to jail in lieu of $700 bail which neither could furnish.

W. M. Spencer, alias F. H. Bernard, alias F. J. Coleman, was arrested at Heppner a short time ago charged with stealing a horse at Arlington a year ago. While in custody at Arlington the sheriff of Canyon county, Idaho, identified him as a man wanted in his county for horse stealing and jail breaking committed two years ago. Requisition papers were secured and the Idaho sheriff took him back to that state for trial.

Wasson—Washburn.

A quiet wedding was solemnized last Sunday, at the home of the bride's parents, near Alville, when Miss Ivy Washburn became the bride of Mr. George Wasson. Only the immediate relatives of the young couple were present to witness the ceremony which was performed by Rev. Edward Curran, of this city. Both the young people are well and favorably known here, Mr. Wasson being the enterprising merchant of Alville, a young man of excellent character and first-class business ability, while his bride is one of the most popular young ladies of that neighborhood. The Goss joins with their many other friends throughout the country in the usual congratulations and good wishes.

Notice of Stock Estrayed.

I have a number of cattle which estrayed from my ranch on the John Day river which I have been unable to find. Cows are branded M C on left side and "Gunhammer" brand on left hip. Young stock "Gunhammer" brand only. Earmark slit on both ears. Anyone knowing of their whereabouts will please notify me and I will come for stock and pay for any damage or trouble caused by them.

Water Bonds Sold.

At a meeting of the city council held Monday evening sealed bids for the purchase of city water bonds to the amount of $30,000 were opened and the contract was awarded. J. P. Rogers of Salem was the successful bidder and the contract was awarded to him. Mr. Rogers bid for the $30,000 worth of bonds was $32,185.00, being a bonus of $2,185.00 over and above the face value of the securities. The bonds draw six per cent. interest. Four bids were submitted ranging from par to the price above named. Morris & Co., of Portland, were second on the list their bid being but $400 under that of Mr. Rogers. This sale is pretty good evidence of the opinion of Condon's future held by financiers on the outside. Neighboring towns have only been able to secure par value for similar securities, Wasco, Sherman county and Ione, Morrow county, having recently accepted bids at that figure. The fact that two bids, from parties who are thoroughly versed in the value of this class of paper, should be at such a handsome advance over par value indicates that, in the minds of posted people on the outside, there is no question of Condon's supremacy as the growing, commercial center of this section of eastern Oregon.

Park Association Meeting.

A meeting of the Condon Park Association was held Sunday when it was decided to offer $500 worth of additional stock in the association for sale. This will provide ample funds for improving the track and providing a permanent grand stand. It is the intention to hold a series of races and ball games about July 4th.

A Creeping Death.

Blood poison creeps up towards the heart, causing death. J. E. Stearns, Belle Plaine, Minn., writes that a friend dreadfully injured his hand, which swelled up like blood poisoning. Bucklen's Arnica Salve drew out the poison, healed the wound, and saved his life. Best in the world for burns and sores. 25c at all druggists.

Joe Fair, a former resident of this city, now of Dayton, Washington, is here on business. Mr. Fair has purchased the interest of his partner, C. L. Rowe, in their Dayton Warehouse business and Mr. Rowe is now in Portland.

F. H. Shannon, of Madisonville, Kentucky, arrived on Tuesday's stage to visit with his brother, F. M. Shannon, the well known farmer one mile south of town. When the brothers met at the post office both declared that had they not expected to meet neither would have recognized the other. This was their first meeting in almost 25 years.

Louie Comini, the well known marble worker, of The Dalles, was in town during the week setting up some work in Masonic cemetery. Monuments were set up at the graves of Mrs. Alex Hardie, G. Schilling and George Moore. The latter is a handsome shaft nine feet high and the plot is surrounded with a handsome fence of stone posts and chain.

The location of the new city well has been fixed on in Dunn's addition in the northwest part of town. Mr. Dunn has offered ground for the well and also for the reservoir to the city free of charge. This generous offer has been accepted and Mr. Green, the drilling contractor, is already on the ground getting things in shape for the installation of the drilling plant which is expected to arrive in a few days.

R. H. Galbraith was over from Mayville yesterday on an errand that not every man in this wicket old world would ride 25 miles to attend to. Mr. Galbraith recently sold a lot of cattle to J. E. Reynolds and in making payment Mr. Reynolds paid him $15 too much. As soon as Mr. Galbraith discovered the error he started to overtake Mr. Reynolds here to rectify the error. Who will say that honesty is a thing of the past in Oregon.

A Pleasing Entertainment.

The stereopticon entertainment and lecture given in Armory hall last Friday evening by Mrs. Edith Tozier-Weatherred, of Portland, was the most pleasing and instructive entertainment of the kind ever given in this city. The pictures were mostly scenes at the St. Louis Exposition with a number of interesting views of the Lewis and Clark Fair and some choice bits of Columbia river scenery. Mrs. Weatherred is one of the best known newspaper women in the Northwest and in addition to her exceptional gifts in that direction she is a lady of most charming personality. She is a tireless worker for Oregon, her native state, and has been one of the state's commissioners to several world's fairs. She is assisted in the entertainments by Mr. Carl Robertson, of Portland, whose rich, well trained voice in a number of illustrated songs, added not a little to the enjoyment of the evening.

Condon Will Celebrate.

A mass meeting of the citizens and business men will be held in Armory hall next Monday evening at 7 o'clock to arrange for a rousing celebration July 4th. It is expected the new railroad will be completed by that date and that arrangements will be made with the railroad company for a special low rate for the occasion. This will doubtless be the biggest event in the history of Condon and every citizen is expected to be present at the meeting on date above named.

Terrific Race With Death.

"Death was fast approaching," writes Ralph F. Fernandez, of Tampa, Fla., describing his fearful race with death. "As a result of liver trouble and heart disease, which had robbed me of sleep and of all interest in life. I had tried many different doctors and several medicines, but got no benefit, until I began to use Electric Bitters. So wonderful was their effect, that in three days I felt like a new man, and today I am cured of all my troubles." Guaranteed at all druggists; price 50c.
