W. W. Stewer and daughter of Fossil were in town Monday on their return from the Fair.

John Jackson drove to Arlington Tuesday evening to catch a train for The Dalles where he was called on a business trip.

E. M. Clymer, of Fossil, went through Sunday on his way to Portland where he had been summoned as a United States juror. Mr. Clymer expected to get excused from attendance because of being postmaster at Fossil.

Mr. and Mrs. H. K. West returned Tuesday from a trip to Portland and the St. Martin Springs near The Dalles. After visiting the Fair they came to the springs where they spent two or three weeks for the benefit of Mrs. West's health.

F. J. Mahoney came in Tuesday from Tekon, Washington, to look after his growing business at this place. He was accompanied by E. C. McCook, of Riceville, Iowa, who will take charge of Mr. Mahoney's office at this place. Mr. McCook, who has had charge of the Condon office temporarily for a few weeks, will return to Tekon.

W. A. Goodwin returned from Portland Tuesday where he and his family went some time ago to attend the annual conference of the Reorganized L. D. S. church and to take in the sights at the Lewis and Clark Fair. After going to Portland their children came down with whooping cough and they were detained for some time before the youngsters were able to come home. Mrs. Goodwin stopped at Arlington to visit for a few days with her parents at that place.

W. W. Cotton, for many years general attorney for the O. R. & N. railway company, and recognized as one of the foremost lawyers on the coast has been selected by President Roosevelt as the successor to Judge Bellinger, the recently deceased federal judge for the district of Oregon. He will not qualify until September, being unable to close up his large private business before that time. Mr. Cotton was associated with Judge Bellinger a few years ago in the codification of Oregon laws known as Bellinger and Cotton's code.

CONTEST NOTICE.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
United States Land Office.

The Dalles, Oregon, May 13, 1905.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed, in this office by Clemens A. Danneman, contestant, against homestead entry No. 6664, made June 4, 1888, for SW 1/4 SE 1/4, Sec. 14, Tp. 2 S, R. 21 E, W. M. by Jesse M. Dean, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Jesse M. Dean has deserted and abandoned said land and failed to live thereon for more than two years last past and said failures still exist and said Dean never did live on said land at any time; and that said alleged absence was not due to service in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock, a. m. on June 26, 1905, before J. W. Snover, U. S. Commissioner at his office at Condon, Or., and that final hearing will be held at 10 o'clock a. m. on June 30, 1905, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in The Dalles, Oregon.

The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed May 13, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice can not be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.

10d15. MICHAEL T. NOLAN, Register.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who has suffered quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Condon Drug Co.

The Arlington Appeal reports that a surveying party supposed to be in the employ of the Northern Pacific is at work on the north side of the Columbia opposite Arlington. The state portage road is bearing considerable fruit.

Huge Task.

It was a huge task, to undertake the cure of such a bad case of kidney disease as that of C. F. Collier, of Cherokee, Ia. but Electric Bitters did it. He writes: "My kidneys were so far gone, I could not sit on a chair without a cushion; and suffered from dreadful backache, headache and depression. In Electric Bitters, however, I found a cure, and by them was restored to perfect health. I recommend this great tonic medicine to all with weak kidneys, liver or stomach. Guaranteed by all druggists; price 50c.
