NEWSPAPERS.

As a medium for advertising the newspaper is probably the only one that can be classed as "indispensable" and successful business men are frank to confess that much of their success is due to liberal newspaper advertising.

A newspaper that keeps abreast of the times and gives prompt knowledge of the places wherever whatever is desired may be procured on the best possible terms, that gets and holds the attention of the largest number of people who want things, and maintains for itself a character of honesty and intelligence is the demand of the experienced advertiser and no other medium is one-half so effective.

The newspapers today reaches non-subscribers as well as subscribers and it makes no difference what the business or condition of the individual may be—almost every one reads the newspapers. And one thousand papers that are paid for bring more returns to the advertiser than fifty times that number of free samples, for whatever a person buys, he means to get his money's worth and he reads everything in the paper, the advertisements as quickly as anything else, because they are part of the paper.

The practice of using window cards, strewing the public highway with dodgers and covering dead walls with signs is being gradually discontinued by the great business houses and the use of newspaper space substituted instead.

The railroad corporations, the best advertisers that we have today, who maintain large publicity departments and employ the best advertising talent in the country, were quick to recognize the value of newspaper advertising and are using the columns of the daily and weekly newspapers more and more each year.

Billboards, dodgers and other such devices attract the eye for the time being, but the newspaper has unfailing access to the eye and ear of the public and the people invariably turn to the newspaper when reliable information is desired.—White's Sayings.

The Diamond Cure.

The latest news from Paris is that they have discovered a diamond cure for consumption or pneumonia, it will, however, be best for you to take that great remedy mentioned by W. T. McGee, of Vanleer, Tenn. "I had a cough for fourteen years. Nothing helped me until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which gave instant relief, and effected a permanent cure." Unequaled quick cure for Throat and Lung troubles. At all druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

The railroad yards and vicinity presents a scene of real activity, a great deal of work being done there now. The new depot foundation is well under way, a large water tank for the railroad company is nearing completion. The stockyards are being finished, the warehouse, mill and many other industries starting up gives Condon a metropolitan air heretofore unknown.

Monuments and Marble Work.

I wish to announce to the Condon public that I expect to establish a branch shop in Condon as soon as the railroad is completed and will then be prepared to furnish marble and stone work to my Gilliam and Wheeler county customers at a minimum figure. I am in this business to stay and every job I turn out is an advertisement of my business. I respectfully ask a continuance of past patronage and cheerfully guarantee every job entrusted to me.

F. B. Stevens, Administrator of the Estate of George Moore, deceased, and all heirs of said deceased, if any there be, and all persons interested in said estate, defendants.

Now at this time is presented the information in the above entitled cause of Frank Menefee, District Attorney of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Oregon, from which it appears to the court:

Stevens administrator of the estate as aforesaid, and all heirs of said George Moore, deceased, if any there be, and all persons interested in said estate, are hereby notified to be and appear in the Circuit court-room in the County court-house in Condon, Gilliam County, Oregon, on or before Monday, the 7th day of August, 1905, then and there to show cause, if any there be, while the title to all of the property belonging to the estate of said George Moore, deceased, to-wit, the sum of $621.50 now on hands and in the hands of the administrator of said estate, should not be vested in the state of Oregon.

Dated at Chambers in The Dalles, Oregon, this 14th day of June, 1905.

W. L. BRADSHAW,

Circuit Judge of the 7th Judicial District of the State of Oregon.
