Keep your eye on Condon.

Watch Condon grow. (With apologies to Tacoma.)

The past week has been torridly hot but Summer heat is not so fatal in Eastern Oregon as in the unfortunate east. No fatalities have been reported in Oregon and but little damage to crops. Back east a hot wave promptly fills the hospitals and cemeteries, while in Oregon all a similar "spell of weather" fills the ice cream parlors and the Peek-a-boo shirtwaists.

The Pendleton East Oregonian asks: "Why do women in the country with large families to wait upon, big homes to keep, enormous duties to perform, long hours to work and infinite details of farm work to look after, yet remain younger in appearance and freer from care than the city woman of the same age with nothing seemingly to do but keep her small house and answer her social calls?" That's easy. They don't.

Coos county, a section of Oregon which supposedly lies in the backwoods and of whose resources but little is known in the big, outside world, is to the front at the Portland Fair with the only independent county building on the grounds. Coos is playing a lone hand and the indications are that she is going to win out. Coos has some enterprising people or she would never had the nerve to erect a handsome building in which to install the products of her rich forests, streams, farms and mines. The building and exhibit no doubt cost Coos a pretty penny but it is good advertising and as it is railroads and people the county needs it may safely be asserted that the Fair exhibit will bring back to the enterprising citizens who put up the money manifold returns on the investment. Coos county has no railroad communication with the outside world but there are other counties in Oregon that have railroads that have no exhibit at the Fair.

Bent Her Double.

"I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter, of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney disorders; at all druggists; price 50c.

The Gilliam Co. Milling Co. has a new display ad in this issue. This company is preparing to carry on an extensive business in the grain and flour line and will soon be in line as one of the operating industries which will soon make Condon famous.

CIRCUIT COURT ORDER.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Gilliam County.

State of Oregon, plaintiff.

vs.
 F. B. Stevens, Administrator of the Estate of George Moore, deceased, and all heirs of said deceased, if any there be, and all persons interested in said estate, defendants.

Now at this time is presented the information in the above entitled cause of Frank Menefee, District Attorney of the Seventh Judicial District of the State of Oregon, from which it appears to the court:

That George Moore died in the State of California, on or about the 21st day of February, 1905, intestate and without heirs and left an estate in Gilliam County, Oregon; that F. B. Stevens is the duly appointed, qualified and acting administrator of the estate of said deceased and, as such administrator, has settled and closed said estate and has filed his final report in the county court in said county and state.

That, after settlement of all of the claims, charges and expenses against said estate, including the expenses of settling and closing the same, said administrator now has in his hands and possession, belonging to said estate, the sum of $6211.59 in money, and said sum is all of the property remaining on hand and belonging to said estate.

That the state of Oregon has right by law to all the property of said deceased.

Now, therefore, in the name of the State of Oregon: You, the said defendant, F. B. Stevens, administrator of the estate as aforesaid, and all heirs of said George Moore, deceased, if any there be, and all persons interested in said estate, are hereby notified to be and appear in the Circuit court-room in the county court-house in Condon, Gilliam County, Oregon, on or before Monday, the 7th day of August, 1905, then and there to show cause, if any there be, while the title to all of the property belonging to the estate of said George Moore, deceased, to-wit, the sum of $6211.59 now on hand and in the hands of the administrator of said estate, should not be vested in the state of Oregon.

Dated at Chambers in The Dalles, Oregon, this 14th day of June, 1905.

W. L. BRADSHAW,
 Circuit Judge of the 7th Judicial District of the state of Oregon.
