

PERSONAL

Mrs. H. W. Pauling and children left yesterday for Portland to spend the Summer.

J. W. Snover and wife left Monday morning for a two weeks' visit at Portland and Seaside.

Dr. Wood's family and Mrs. P. H. Stephenson and children left Tuesday morning for Long Beach. The doctor remains in Condon.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans, of Mosier, Wasco county, are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Frank Macy. Mrs. Macy's condition was not so favorable yesterday as it has been for the past week or more.

C. F. Kennedy, of Pendleton, representing the Pacific Coast Grain & Elevator Co., came in Tuesday. This company expects to erect a large grain warehouse in this city and another at Clem.

L. J. Barr, of Lamoni, Iowa, who has been visiting his brother Jay Barr, for two or three months, expects to leave today for his eastern home. He will go back via Portland and visit the big fair on the way.

John Richmond, the well-known Ferry Canyon rancher, was in town yesterday. Mr. Richmond says the recent hot wave did but little damage to crops in his section the slight harm done being confined to the later sown spring crops.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Insley, of Portland, were here for a day or two during the week taking a look at the most rapidly growing town in Oregon. Mr. Insley is engaged in the Manufacturers Agency business in Portland but may decide to locate here. They returned to Portland this morning.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Mann returned from Portland Monday, where they spent a couple of weeks taking in the fair and attending the annual meeting of the American Dental Society. The meeting was a very successful and interesting one and, the doctor says, was of really more interest to him than the fair.
