Des Chutes. Condon, August 1, 1905.

are here, with big camp at of cooking and, Oh! such you could eat just one meal you would at once decide to make a trip to this spot every year. Our camp consists of the Condon people, Wm. Templeton and family, of Brownville, Joe Templeton and family, of Helsey, ten bear hunters, a wagon load of bear dogs and two big bears. No venison yet for you know it is still unlawful to hunt deer. I do wish all lovers of fishing could be here for a while and enjoy the fun. There are fish for everybody.

A Touching Story is the saving from death, of the baby girl of Geo. A. Evler, Cumberland, Md.
He writes: "At the age of 11 months, our little girl was in declining health, with serious Throat Trouble, and two physicians gave her up. We were almost in despair, when we resolved to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. The first bottle gave relief; after taking four bottles she was cured, and is now in perfect health." Never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. At all druggists;

Monuments and Marble Work.

I wish to announce to the Condon public that I expect to establish a branch shop in Condon as soon as the railroad is completed and will then be prepared to furnish marble and stone work to my Gilliam and Wheeler county in this business to stay and every job I turn out is an advertisement of my business. I respectfully ask a continuance of past patronage and cheerfully guarantee every job entrusted to me.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H.
Walters, of 546 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months, I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was also weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at all druggists; price 50c.
