

SENATOR MITCHELL DEAD.

Senator John H. Mitchell, for years one of the leading figures in Oregon politics, died at the Good Samaritan hospital, in Portland, at 11:30 a. m. last Friday, of diabetic coma, following a severe hemorrhage which resulted from a dental operation on the previous day.

Senator Mitchell had been a sufferer from diabetes for years, and his system, enfeebled by the inroads of insidious disease, was unable to withstand the effects of the loss of blood and the end came so quietly and peacefully that the medical men and friends surrounding his bedside could not determine the exact moment when life became extinct.

John H. Mitchell was born in Washington county, Pennsylvania, June 22, 1835. At the age of seventeen he engaged in teaching and in this way earned money to complete his education after which he studied law and was admitted to the bar. In 1860 he went to California and a few months later came to Oregon, landing in Portland July 4th of that year. He at once showed an aptitude for politics and a year later was elected city attorney for Portland. The following year he was elected to the state senate, and three times subsequently was elected to the same high position. He was a man of marked personal gentility and it is said of him that wherever he went he made warm friends.

A widow and four children survive him. The children are: John H. Mitchell Jr., of St. Paul, Lieutenant Hiram Mitchell, of New York; M. Faucett, of Canton, Ohio; and the Duchesse de Rochefoucauld, of Paris, France. Mrs. Mitchell resides with her daughter in Paris. None of his immediate family was with him at the end but John H. Mitchell Jr. arrived to attend the funeral which took place Tuesday.

Grip Quickly Knocked Out.

"Some weeks ago during the severe winter weather both my wife and myself contracted severe colds which speedily developed into the worst kind of la grippe with all its miserable symptoms," says Mr. J. S. Eggleston of Maple Landing, Iowa. "Knees and joints aching, muscles sore, head stopped up, eyes and nose running, with alternate spells of chills and fever. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, aiding the same with a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and by its liberal use soon completely knocked out the grip." These tablets promote a healthy action of the bowels, liver and kidneys which is always beneficial when the system is congested by a cold or attack of the grip. For sale by Condon Drug Co.

A Certain Cure For Croup.

When a child shows symptoms of croup there is no time to experiment with new remedies, no matter how highly they may be recommended. There is one preparation that can always be depended upon. It has been in use for many years and has never been known to fail, viz: Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. M. F. Compton, of Market, Texas, says of it: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in severe cases of croup with my children, and can truthfully say it always gives prompt relief." The Key that Unlocks the Door to Long Living.

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund well fed, but thin, spare men who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to cleanse and invigorate his stomach and regulate his liver and bowels. When this is done there is no reason why the average man should not live to old age. For sale by Condon Drug Co.
