

Bialock News.

One of Mr. Logan's babies was on the sick list this week.

Miss Pearl Parish is very sick. Dr. Low was called twice this week to see her.

Mrs. G. W. Andrews has 151 young chickens just hatched out. Don't you think she is crowing the season, or chickens, which?

W. R. Baker went to The Dalles to make final proof on his homestead yesterday. Joe Telt and W. J. Mariner accompanied him as his witnesses.

We are having fine plowing weather now and the farmers are making good use of it. Some have commenced sowing wheat, and others are getting ready to sow. If present good weather continues.

Quite an excitement was caused here a few days ago by two of Mr. Bunch's children getting lost in the John Day hills. They were sent after the cows and are supposed to have missed their way. They crossed the river and returned to their old home in Sherman county.

Items are scarce here in the Bialock country, so I will come again when I have news worth your time and attention.

Mayville Items.

Tom Goodman has the foundation laid for a 30x80 two-story amusement hall, on the lot south of Wm. Keys residence. The work will begin immediately.

A pleasant evening was spent in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday in honor of the birthday of Mr. Fred Stinchfield. Many friends from Fossil attended.

Ira Carter returned Saturday from Ellensburg, Washington, where he has been visiting his brother, James, the past week.

Mem. James Cushing and Keys visited the wood camp of Cushing, Wright & Co. Sunday.

Earl McConnell returned Saturday from a month's visit with relatives near Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Walker are living on their homestead on Buckhorn.

Hanson-Estes.

At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Estes, in this city, Tuesday evening, February 6th, was solemnized the marriage of their daughter, Miss Theo Pearl Estes to Mr. Frederick Hanson, of The Dalles. Rev. J. W. Mount, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, spoke the words of the marriage service in the presence of the immediate relatives of the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Hanson will remain in Condon for a few days when they will go to The Dalles where they will reside in a home already prepared and furnished.

A Good Show.

The Great Eastern Vitagraph Company, under the management of E. W. Grosbeck, gave two excellent entertainments here Saturday and Monday evenings. Moving pictures and song and dance specialties make up the repertoire and it can be said that theirs is the best show of its class that has visited Condon in many months, and this paper is glad to say so. Many more pretentious traveling companies charging double the prices give much less meritorious entertainments.

New Members Received.

Communion services were held in the Congregational church last Sunday with baptism and reception of new members. Four names were added to the church roll. Rev. G. W. Riggs, the popular pastor of this church is doing good work in building up the organization and the services draw large congregations. His thoughtful discourse last Sunday evening was highly spoken of by many auditors.
