COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

CWENDOLEN

Both spring and fall grain is doing exceptionally well and with the recent heavy rains which soaked the ground we may expect a bumper crop.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. Allen Hardy went to Hood River to put up their year's supply of strawberries.

Mrs. Dillaboy and two children are visiting with relatives at Cascade Locks.

O. H. Guild, Geo. R. Flanders and Marion Keenev spent election day in Condon.

BLALOCK

Miss Carlyle of Arlington is spending the week with her friend, Miss Grace McKinney.

Miss Zana Ellis of Wasco is to spend the summer with Miss Myra Stanton.

A rain storm occurred here Sunday which has done much for the grain. The storm was preceded by an extremely warm day Saturday.

The social on Saturday evening was a great success. $58.50 was cleared.

Andrew Neel of Lone Rock sold 2,850 head of sheep to Murray, the buyer for Long & Co. They were shipped out Wednesday morning.

John Scrivner and wife of Idea transacted business in Condon this week.

The people of Wheeler county are evidently satisfied with prohibition as they again voted the county dry at the last election.

Wm. Brown of Ferry Canyon was in town last Friday.

Last Monday night Mike Fitzgerald of Mitchell lost 500 head of sheep on the bedding grounds near town after coming out of the dipping vat. The sheep had just been shorn and were in very poor condition, together with the dipping and cold rainy night was responsible for the loss. The sheep had been sold to Saunders of Salt Lake and driven here where they were to be received by the buyer and shipped to Utah. Mr. Fitzgerald had to stand the loss, however, as the sheep had not been counted out.—Shaniko Republican.

Monday, June 11th, at 8 p. m. in the Congregational Church, the Bridges Concert Co. will give their closing concert. They will be assisted by the chorus of about 40 voices that have been under their instruction for the past week. The program will consist of quartettes and duets and readings of good character that will please all. Several very humorous numbers will also be given. Admission, adults 50c children under 12 yrs. 25c.

BUSINESS ITEMS.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR

New York Press.

It is bad policy to prove a man wrong in an argument when you know he has some other way of getting even.

You don't have to wear good clothes if you can afford to.

A girl never likes you to kiss her unless she says she doesn't.

There would be a lot more fun in religion if people tried to discourage you from it.

A woman talks the kind of talk she does to a baby so the baby won't be sorry he can't talk it back.

Generally when a man is a great help around the house he isn't very much at supporting the family outside.

There will be money enough in the world for everybody when it is no use to anyone.

On a nice spring day it seems like being sentenced to hard labor even to have to yawn.

A nice thing about having a large family is you can't afford to have any other bad habits.

A girl is pretty sure you want to marry her when you tell her she has hair like some famous actress.

Small boys wouldn't mind having ears if there were no mothers to wash them.

It's advice when you give it and lecturing when you get it.

A man is nearly always ashamed to admit he was never wild.

Some boys who go to college don't even learn to play base ball.

It's funny how artistic people think long hair will make up for brains.

A widower thinks he might do better next time and a widow that she could not do worse.

The early bird rises so soon so that the youngsters can lie abed while the worm is being caught.

Some women seem to think that on a rainy day a pair of becoming stockings is of more use than an umbrella.
