COURT CONDON, NO. 54, P. OF A. MEETH
Monday evening of each month in Armory Hall, Condon, Ore. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.
J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. R.

According to a local in the Condon Times the name of Jay Bowerman has been mentioned as a possible candidate for president of the next state Senate. While we haven't seen any Bowerman fireworks in any of our exchanges but the Times we are willing to admit that they may have escaped our attention. Jay Bowerman for president of the next Senate! That's good enough to jot down in the joke book. If any of those fellows down at Salem should happen to hear of it, it will afford them a little amusement. Jay has represented the people of the 21st Senatorial District for two years and his colleagues are yet unaware that Condon is on the map. It looks a little as if the first gun of the Bowerman campaign for reelection to the state Senate had been fired, but the powder was very wet and the gunner couldn't find anything in the arsenal but a blank cartridge.

Judging from the recent speech made by Senator Bailey in the U. S. Senate there is no love lost between the young Texas senator and the "muckrakers." Had the latter maligned the character of Bryan, Hearst and some of the other avowed candidates for the democratic nomination for president in 1908, the Texas senator would doubtless have been glad to lend his eloquence to encourage them in their eloquence.
