

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Geo. Gibbons of Mayville will ship a carload of fat hogs to Troutdale Friday morning. Mr. Gibbons has probably shipped out more hogs this winter than any other rancher in the county.

The ground throughout Gilliam county has received more moisture this winter than it has in years and the prospects for a mammoth crop next summer were never brighter.

R. Gilliam of Fossil was transacting business in Condon the fore part of the week.

Landlord F. A. Haskell of the Hotel Oregon has accepted a lucrative position as travelling salesman for a large eastern wholesale house having its principal place of business at Chicago. His territory covers the states of Oregon, Montana and Washington and he left Wednesday for The Dalles where he will begin work at once. Mrs. Haskell will have charge of the hotel during his absence.

JUST THE ORDINARY WOMAN

I wish that I had the distributing of some of the Carnegie medals for heroes. I would give one to just the Ordinary Woman. It is true she never manned a lifeboat in a stormy sea, or plunged into a river to save a drowning person. It is true she never stopped a runaway horse or dashed into a burning building, or gave any other spectacular exhibition of courage, says Elizabeth Meriwether Gilmer in the Cosmopolitan Magazine. She has only stood at her post 30, or 40, or 50 years, fighting sickness and poverty and loneliness and disappointment so quietly, with such Spartan fortitude, that the world has never even noticed her achievements, and yet in the presence of the Ordinary Woman the battle scarred veteran, with his breast covered with medals signifying valor, may well stand uncovered, for one braver than he is passing by.

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness." This is an old saying but no truer words were ever spoken. Clean clothes are as necessary as meat and drink. Every woman likes clean clothes. Every gentleman likes to wear clothes that are neatly cleaned and pressed. See Simpson the Laundry Man. His motto is cleanliness and his prices are reasonable.

Fuel To Burn.

Help us to keep enough on hand to last until spring. We are fortunate in having a considerable quantity of dry wood and coal. Permit us to deliver you some slab wood to burn along with it thus making it last longer. It's not a question of selling what we can get but getting all we can sell. Let's not burn all the dry then the green wood but rather mix it as we go. Send orders to Arlington Lumber Co., Arlington, Clatsop and Condon.

HOMESTEADERS, ATTENTION
