Mrs. J. E. Hunt returned Saturday evening from Portland where she has been visiting for some weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Travis.

W. L. Barker and Frank Pitter shipped a car load of horses to Portland last week. If the market is not good at that place they will ship to Los Angeles, California.

Judge Dunn found it unnecessary to commit the Beeson children to the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society of Portland. The father of the children agreed to pay all costs and provided a home for them with Mrs. Goodman of Mayville.

Business Locals.

Because of the car shortage, the Gilliam Co. Milling Co. is overstocked with millfeed. While it lasts this will be sold at an exceptionally low price, for cash.

"Cleanliness is next to Godliness." This is an old saying but no truer words were ever spoken. Clean clothes are as necessary as meat and drink. Every woman likes clean clothes. Every gentleman likes to wear clothes that are neatly cleaned and pressed. See Simpson the Laundry Man. His motto is cleanliness and his prices are reasonable.

Fuel To Burn.

Help us to keep enough on hand to last until spring. We are fortunate in having a considerable quantity of dry wood and coal. Permit us to deliver you some elab wood to burn along with it thus making it last longer. It's not a question of selling what we can get but getting all we can sell. Let's not burn all the dry then the green wood but rather mix it as we go. Send orders to Arlington Lumber Co., Arlington, Clem and Condon.
