COURT CONDON, NO. 34, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory hall, lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. R.

With this issue of the GLOBE the undersigned severs his connection with the paper. I desire first to thank the public for their liberal patronage and support and second to say that it is with no little regret that I leave the good people of Gilliam county. It is from no loss of faith in the business that I make the change, for it was never on a better financial basis, but simply because I desire to devote my entire time to the practice of law. The new proprietors, H. A. Hartshorn and Marcus Portwood, are young men who are well and favorably known throughout the county. The former has had considerable experience in the newspaper business, being at one time employed as reporter on the Cedar Rapids Gazette, in which capacity he served for over a year. The latter has been a member of the firm of Carter & Portwood for some months and has been doing a good business in real estate and abstracts. That the new firm will make a success of the business goes without saying, as their ability and integrity is unquestioned.

W. H. HORNIBROOK.

The undersigned have formed a partnership for the purpose of publishing the Condon Globe and conducting a real estate and abstract business. It shall be our purpose to conduct the business in such a manner that no one will have reason to complain of receiving anything but fair and impartial treatment at our hands. Fred Anderson who has been employed at the Globe office for nearly a year will continue in our employment, which fact insures the best of job printing. Our abstract books will soon be completed, and we shall, by the judicious use of printers ink, advertise all land and other property listed with us for sale. All subscription accounts have been turned over to us, but W. H. Hornibrook is to collect and receive all advertising and job printing accounts up to the 1st day of April. We respectfully solicit the patronage and support of the public.
