J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. R.

If Bryan keeps hanging around Boston, old Madam Democracy will be calling him "Hubby".

Mayor Lane of Portland has been nominated by the Democrats of that city for re-election. This is one Lane that seems to have no turning.

Two Kentuckians fought a duel over a dollar and both were killed. Had they invested the dollar in true Kentucky style, neither would have been more than half shot.

An Omaha woman who was sued for $110 declared that she had already paid the debt with a kiss but the hard hearted judge decided that even a tender kiss was not legal tender.

A beautiful young Iowa woman has been sent to prison because she insisted on kissing every young man she met. The jury must have been composed entirely of married women.

Last year no street cars were running in San Francisco on account of the earthquake. This year they cannot run on account of the strike. 'Friaco seems to have a hard time.

The story of that professor who has trained a starfish to do funny stunts, will only mildly interest the women who have for years been training lobsters to perform at their bidding.

Now a Baltimore professor offers proof that the Mediterranean sperm whale could swallow a man the size of Jonah. First he should be called upon to show what he knows about the size of Jonah.

"A clean Southern man running for the Presidency," says the Athens, Ga. Banner, "would astonish the nation by the race he would run." And the nation would probably astonish the clean man by the amount of dirt it can throw.

Watch Oregon's apples come to the front at the Jamestown Exposition.

The newspapers of the country seem determined to run Roosevelt for another term. Teddy has been unaccountably mum on the question for some time.

There is liable to be something doing in Idaho before the Moyer-Haywood trial is over, judging from the sentiment of the labor unions throughout the country.
