COURT CONDON, NO. 4, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall, Condon, Oregon. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OYERLANDER, C. R.

Alfonso thinks that's just the greatest baby that ever arrived.

Secretary Taft is what you might call a 52-inch all around man.

If Mabelle Gilman isn't a blushing bride, a good many people will think she ought to blush.

They are having exciting times in Idaho capturing jurors to try the Steunenburg murder case.

Naturally all the newspapers will claim some of the credit for hurrying the Spanish stork up a little.

Notwithstanding the reports, insanity is not on the increase. It is just the number of insanity experts who are.

The Missouri Supreme Court is going to drive the Standard Oil Company from that State. Maybe John D. will "show" 'em.

The King of Spain need not thing he has a monopoly of such delightful excitement. They all feel they way over the first baby.

The experts may succeed in getting a photograph of the canals on Mars, but they can't get my photograph of the canal in Panama.

New York detectives claim they have unearthed evidence proving Mrs. Howard Gould guilty of bigamy. Now look out for a lot of newspaper notoriety.

With the score tied in the ninth, two men out and the bases full, a player has a splendid chance to win a reputation as an "undesirable citizen" by striking out.

The Democratic Mirror finds fault with theatregoers for leaving before the curtain falls on the last act. In a good many cases they deserve considerable credit for sitting through the second act.

Referring to a local politician, a Nebraska paper says: "We will not call him an ass, we will print his speech." The editor of that paper must be fitting himself for a position on the diplomatic corps.

Considerable mud slinging in the Portland municipal campaign.

The pen of the tongue should be dipped into the ink of the heart.

San Francisco is on the water wagon as the brewers have gone on a strike.

Big Chief Foraker carries a pipe of peace in one hand and a tomahawk in the other.

The Foraker lion and the Taft lamb have changed their minds about lying down together.

What will we eat, when dollar wheat. Sends flour so high, we cannot buy?

Many facetious persons seem to think that Henry Watterson's "dark horse" is only a night mare.

A London professor declares that English girls wink the left eye. They probably consider it one of their rights.

The French artist who painted President Roosevelt's picture in "restful pose," must have portrayed him sound asleep.

A Kentucky dairyman has been caught selling milk with minnows in it. He should be more careful about his water supply.

The report is being denied that the Pacific Coast people are waiting to visit the Jamestown exposition by way of the Panama canal.

The Sultan of Morocco is said to be very chummy with his dentist, but what could be more natural since the man undoubtedly has a pull?

Abe Ruef plead guilty and declared he was innocent. It is hard for him to get over his little habit of telling different stories about the same thing.

Vice-President Fairbanks was arrested in Philadelphia the other day for automobile speeding. According to reports he is making a great run in Pennsylvania.

The proposition to amalgamate the Central American republics under a strong protectorate, would be all right if they could find one strong enough to hold 'em.

There are ten thousand camels in Egypt named Teddy Roosevelt, but the president needn't feel set up about it. There are at least ten hundred monkeys in this country named Caruso.

An investigator has discovered that bullets are so deadly because they are loaded with germs. This discovery will not make people any readier to get in the way of antiseptic bullets though.

According to a society item from Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. Flusher and two daughters have arrived there from Philadelphia. It is understood, however, that these four Flushers are not the only ones to be credited to that city.

Damages to the extent of $35,000 have been assessed against the N. Y. Central R. R. for the destruction of the "lower third of a leg." This is said to be the largest verdict ever given for a like injury. What would it have been, had the middle or upper third been the portion lost?
