COURT CONDON, NO. 34, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. R.

The Cannon boom seems to have been only a blank shot.

Government officials are allowed forty cents a day for tips to dining car waiters. We can imagine the scant courtesy and food they get from the waiters.

Senator Pettus says that the Brownsville investigation makes him tired. From the testimony taken last week Senator Foraker must be feeling the same way.

According to his friends Taft has every state but Oklahoma, and if a certain set of men can prevent it Oklahoma will not get into the Union in time count either way.

An Automobile magazine asserts that "the possession of a motor car is not necessarily the proof of great wealth". And the fact is that the possession of one is oftentimes the cause of great poverty.

Mr. Roosevelt has been presented with an annual pass to all the baseball games in the country free of charge. No wonder he refuses to run for a third term. How would he get time to make use of his pass?

Dr. Long, author of many Nature books seems to be the latest distinguished addition to the Ananias Club, but he will doubtless console himself when he observes the increased sale of his books which result from free advertising.

The President has ordered that young Army officers shall each be put to a riding test. The army officers are disgruntled about it but the President has decided that the ranks of Rough Riders decimated by civil jobs shall be filled again.

Senator McCarren of Brooklyn says that a state senator should not be compelled to pay so much to get elected. "The idea of expending so much money for an office that pays such a small salary does not have a good moral effect" are his words but as a matter of fact the only moral thing about it seems to be the size of the salary.

Everybody in Ohio wants "harmony" but everyone wants his own particular brand of the article.

A New York daily says money is a drug on the market. But unfortunately the drug trust has not been busted.

General Kuroki was not able to visit the honorable stock yards but he will find plenty of bad odors in honorable San Francisco.

"There is no such thing as justice in America" says Caruso, the tenor of monkey house fame, and he voices the opinion of everyone who has ever bought tickets for grand opera.

The New Orleans Item remarks that "pessimism and a good dinner cannot be in one man". Evidently the editor of the Item does not eat ice cream with his Lobster a la Newburg.

A Texas court chopped the fingers off one of the arms of the Standard Oil octopus by imposing fines amounting to $1,600,000 but the Supreme court has not yet affirmed the decision.

Senator Depew says newspaper criticism is only another form of the tortures practiced during the Inquisition. Or in other words a man need not let his conscience worry him until he is found out.

According to an exchange Secretary Taft is interested in every anti-fat remedy he hears about. If we are not mistaken he will have found a sure one before the presidential nomination comes off.

It is rather a curious fact according to Government statistics, the amount of liquors and beer consumed in the United States is increasing quite rapidly, although the area of prohibition has also increased greatly. The total drink bill of the United States for the current fiscal year, May and June being estimated, will be $1,667,083,610.00. Of this vast sum only $216,228,162.00 was spent for tea, coffee and cocoa, leaving $1,450,855,448.00 for alcoholic drinks and beer. The increase in four years has been $160,000,000.00. The total drink bill for five years has been $7,535,146,287.00. The American people will consume nearly enough drinks this year to pay the present National debt twice over. In gallons the amounts are as follows: Beer, 1,700,000,000 coffee 1,610,000,000, tea 561,740,500, spirits and wines 140,328,339. Congress now appropriates nearly a billion dollars a year for all governmental expenses. The people drink up over a billion and a half. They drink up one-fifth of the value of all the farm products of the United States; the liquor bill is more than the value of the corn crop, double that of the wheat crop, more than twice that of the cotton crop, two and one-half that of the hay crop. For the first time in the country's history more beer, in quantity, will have been drunk this year than coffee—20.2 gallons per capita of beer. There has been a large increase in the consumption of domestic wines. The cheering feature of the subject is that less strong liquors and more mild beverages are being consumed. This is a trend toward temperance.
