COURT CONDON, NO. 5, P. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall, Condon, Oregon. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. R.

The biography of Harry Orchard makes the Jesse James stories sound like the exploits of amateurs.

If California and the Japanese do not soon cease growling, the Pacific coast will cease to be pacific.

Senator Beveridge is about to answer his own question as to how a Congressman with a salary of only seventy five hundred can live in Washington. He is going to marry an heiress.

The only crop that does not seem to have been affected by the unseasonable weather of June is the crop of brides.

If, as Mr. Tillman thinks, Harman is bound for the infernal regions, wonder if he can carry enough water with him to put out the fire.

An Alabama bard is singing of the "Poetry and Prunes". As a rule, bards are full of both poetry and prunes.

An incoming ship recently unloaded ten tons of Limburger cheese in San Francisco. If there is any city in U. S. where the presence of such a cargo will not be especially noticeable, that is the one.

Harrison is getting tired of being "it" in the national tag game.

The annual robbery of Americans is proceeding gayly on the other side of the Big Pond.

John D. Rockefeller's barber is worth $100,000. If he had succeeded in making John D's hair grow, he would probably have been worth a million.

A man inserted an "ad" for a wife in the Chattanooga Star and because he secured one the next day, the paper announces with a great flourish that "advertising pays". We shall await the post-nuptial statement of the defendant before rendering final judgement.

We are not much on poetry but how's this? "Watch the Baltimore oil-can fleet, how it makes mosquitoes skeet".

A Missouri editor says that men swear to keep from crying and women cry to keep from swearing and neither one has any sympathy for the other's expression of feeling.

The public was nearly unanimous in its opinion of Schmitz but it was surprised to have the opinion so promptly confirmed by a jury that had not called for expert evidence.

Professor Wiley of the Agricultural Department says that it is a disgrace to die before one hundred and the increased cost of living makes it evident that anyone who lives to that age will not be disgraced by dying rich.

The President may use no stronger expression than "By George" but it has been disclosed that he can emphasize it at any time with a remarkably quick acting gun.

Secretary Cortelyou has ordered in all $10,000 bank bills and the plumbers and coal dealers are busy emptying their purses.

It is evident that while Mr. Taft may have the heart and the head to carry out Rooseveltian policies he will not have the stomach.

"Tis love that makes the world go round" according to one poet, but a man who is not in love, can secure the same effect with the aid of a few highballs.

There is no use in physicians warning us against microbes in connection with kissing babies. We emphatically refuse to boil the babies and that's all there is to it.

"The path of poetry leads but to the jail" says the staff poet of the Baltimore Sun. The general impression is that it leads there via the poorhouse, however.

The whole country is, of course, observing the fact that Pennsylvania is making a noise like a State that intends to be right in the next Presidential campaign.

The planet Mars will come nearer the earth this summer than ever before. And with Teddy in the White House, we may have a war with one of our neighbors yet.

It's hard to live up to a big reputation. An office boy caught Andrew Carnegie without a single library in his pockets.

If the Hague Peace Conference transacts its business and adjourns without coming to blows, it will be more than some people dare hope for.

A Detroit man who has been trying to support three families has just been declared bankrupt. In view of the cost of living, it is a wonder he was not declared insane.

In his efforts to get back into the senate, "Billy" Mason is handicapped by the fact that all his utterances seem to get into the humorous column.

"St. Louis has a smoke inspector but he hasn't done much in the way of stopping smoke" says the Chicago Record-Herald. Why should he stop the smoke? If there were no smoke to inspect he might lose his job.

UNCLE SAM

gas engine service

Uncle Sam uses the UNION GAS ENGINE for his field outfit in the artillery and wireless telegraph service. This rough treatment is a true practical test of efficiency and durability. The UNION GAS ENGINE is constructed in such a superior manner and of such fine material that it starts easy, works easy and runs easy under ordinary, everyday, rough farm usage. Before you invest a cent in a gas engine write for our free catalog.
