J. E. VAUGHN, F. S. W. W. OVERLANDER, C. B.

How do you like the "good old summer time"?

A Texan claims to have caught a trout with a mouth fifteen inches wide. The curious thing about the story is that it is claimed that the man caught the trout and not the trout the man.

Although one judge has decided that a mollycoddle is one who shirks his part of the world's work, the average boy is going to continue sidestepping the job of splitting kindling wood as long as he can.

"Stick to the Constitution" says the N. Y. Sun. It is alleged that Mr. Roosevelt even goes so far as to take the big stick to it occasionally.

A Lee for Governor of Virginia! He ought to win in a walk.

A pugilist known as the "Human Anvil" was arrested in N. Y., on the charge of theft, but was acquitted when it appeared that a number of people had their hammers out for him.

Dr. Wiley says that every baby is worth one thousand dollars. He should have specified that it is worth that amount to the parents. The neighbors would be glad to dispose of it for thirty cents.

An exchange announces: "Foraker in the field". When we last heard from him, we supposed that he had taken to the woods.

The steel trust has adopted the business policy of the manufacturer of pure foods. The latter claims that poison, impure or adulterated foods are cheaper than the pure article. Therefore if people don't want to be poisoned they must pay more for what they eat. The steel trust says there is but one kind of rail that will protect the railroad trains from accidents and safeguard the lives of the passengers. But the old fashioned rail which was responsible for the slaughter of thousands is $28 a ton. The safe kind sells for $33. The railroad may take their choice, knowing there is no law to prevent the trust manufacturing and selling rotten rails.

Condensed into a few words, Mr. Bryan's definition of a Democrat is a man who voted for Bryan in 1896 and 1900, and feels like doing it a few more times.

It is entirely proper, prima facie, that Aktebologer Obligationskonkoret and A. B. Obligationskonkoret should be denied the use of the mails. If they are allowed it at all, they would have a monopoly.

Wonder what the feelings of the President were, when he noticed that as soon as he departed for Oyster Bay, the Teddy bears in Washington were marked down to 79 cents.

"A shiver went through the passengers" says a realistic writer in a thrilling railroad story. As a matter of fact, it probably was the Pullman porter.

Abe Hummel is said to be quite happy at Blackwell's. It is a good thing when a man finds his place in life.

Richard Croker's son is touring Ireland in an emerald green automobile. The patriotic color is supposed doubtless to console any one who happens to be run over by the machine.

Walter Wellman seems to be a little late this year in advancing a reason why his trip to the pole should be postponed for another year. Can it be that the excuses have been exhausted.

"I doubt not that Satan rides in an automobile" says a Detroit minister. Yes, we have heard that Satan was a scorcher.

And now it is said that potatoes will be utilized in the manufacture of lead pencils. That will do as well as anything else as an excuse for raising the price of pencils and potatoes.

"It takes more nerve for a woman to open a telegram than it does for a man to open a jackpot" says the Phila. Inquirer. And the result is frequently far less startling.

Just about now, Commander Peary might make his proposed North Pole trip a popular excursion party.

The mayor of Baltimore wants to restrict bachelors to a diet of bread. And yet we are taught that it is not good for man to live on bread alone.
