WHY DOESN'T CONDON HAVE A STREET SPRINKLER

This question is asked by someone every time the wind sweeps a big cloud of dust around the corner into somebody's face or into some store, the counters or shelves of which have just been cleaned, covering the goods with a layer of dust making it impossible to keep anything clean. And why doesn't Condon have a street sprinkler? The answer heretofore has been: "Not enough water." But since the city purchased the Hay Creek ranch the water supply has been practically inexhaustible so that excuse has been done away with. What will the next excuse be? It will probably be that a sprinkler costs too much money. If this is true why is it that other towns not half the size of Condon can afford one? Is it going to be said that these towns are ahead of and more up-to-date than Condon? A movement was started some time ago to start a sprinkler and the city did its part by offering to furnish the water free of charge. J. W. Hire offered to furnish the sprinkler and do the work providing the merchants would guarantee him a sufficient amount to justify him in purchasing the sprinkler but the guarantee was not forthcoming and the movement died. It seems that the merchants are the ones who are now holding back the enterprise when they should be the ones to push it. For a small donation each month their stores would have a much more inviting appearance and would as a whole prove more satisfactory to their customers. This matter should be attended to before the crops are harvested for as soon as the teams commence hauling wheat to town the streets will be cut up and in worse shape than ever.

ADAX

A. J. Shelton, our popular assessor has bought Mr. Stanley's wheat at $3 per acre.

Heading has commenced and the grain seems to be turning out fine.

Pias Workinger, Smith Bros., Chas Fagan, Al York and Burrell Brown have formed a company and purchased the Adlard & Rickard thresher. Pias Workinger is general manager.

While in this vicinity last week A. J. Shelton had the misfortune to have his team run away, breaking out the tongue and tangling up the harness.

Al York says he has the banner crop of barley in this part of the country.

Walter Farrer is back from Rogue River. He says give him Old Gilliam.

Messrs. Hines, Ogle and Underwood have their combined harvesters home and ready for business.

WANTED—Two A. No. 1 carpenters July 20th. Apply to H. C. Winans, Office corner of Walnut and East Sts., two blocks East of Hotel Oregon. Condon, Oregon.

J. B. THOMPSON RELEASED

J. B. Thompson, who has been in the county jail for two years and six months awaiting trial under $10,000.00 bonds for the murder of Alex Goericks, has furnished bonds which were approved by Judge Littlefield and was released Wednesday morning. His bondsmen are George Nelson of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, and J. A. Allison of Gillette, Wyoming, both of whom are brothers-in-law of Thompson. He left Wednesday morning for outside points accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Allison, who has been here visiting with him for a week. His case will be tried at the next term of the circuit court.

The Misses Knox of Fossil were guests of Miss Jean Barker the latter part of last week and the first of this. Miss May Knox returned to her home Monday while her sister left for Monmouth and other points where she will visit friends and relatives for some time.

Fred Sanders came down from Lost Valley Wednesday. He reported everything is looking fine in that section of the country and says that he has cut 116 cords of wood this summer.
