COURT CONDON, NO. 54, F. OF A. MEET-Mondays evening of each month in Army Hall, Condon, Oregon. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

President Roosevelt as the greatest of the Deep Waterways Association has during the past week or ten days been taking a trip down the Mississippi river from Keokuk, Iowa, to New Orleans on a river steamer in company with several governors of various states. The object of the trip is to give information and arouse the interest of the President and other prominent men of the nation in the matter of deepening the channel and opening up the large rivers of the country to give better access in the interest of commerce and to help in the development of the country along these rivers. The President has gone into this scheme as deeply as any he has heretofore taken up, even mentioning the Columbia river with words of praise and showing a knowledge of all the big waterways that one would not expect from any but a specialist in that line. He has made many speeches along the way at the various cities and towns and has been met by thousands of people at each place. The people of the South seem to be as hearty as those of the North in welcoming him, and this with many other things which he has done is doing as much to do away with the old enmity between the North and South as the war with Spain and that is saying a great deal. One of the most important of his sayings along that line was at Memphis, Tenn., when he said, "In the fundamental questions most deeply affecting the life of the nation there can be no proper division on party lines" and this saying with others and the fact that he lives up to these sayings has made him what he is; the foremost man of the nation in the minds of the people of the United States.

The Louisville couple married under water, the other day, will find it no picnic keeping their heads above it after they settle down to housekeeping.

A California man has just been released after having served thirteen years for a crime he never committed. Possibly his disposition has not been soured by the experience, but, at any rate, he should not be expected to regard it as a joke.

Whether he is ever elected or not, Mr. Taft is managing to have a good time.

Everything, has not gone up in price. Happily, circus tickets, red lemonade, peanuts and pop corn are still within the reach of everyone.

Contracts for five torpedo-boat destroyers awarded. The influence of the Peace Conference goes steadily on!

If the Japanese as a nation are not riding for a fall, then the Japanese government ought to take severe measures with the faction of its people who are giving continual provocation to the people of this country for fresh aggression against the Japanese on the Pacific coast. Word has just been received by the authorities at Washington that a party of Japanese from one of the poaching schooners landed at Litak Bay and looted all the houses they could get into. The settlement was either poorly armed or all the men away for the invaders got away with their loot, but the chances are that if they had been repulsed and a few of them killed that the Japanese public would have distorted it into another anti-Japanese outrage.
This species of provocation cannot be continued without making more bad blood, and if the Japanese government wants its people well treated in the United States, it should keep them in order.
