COURT CONDON, NO. 4, P. OF A. MEET: Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall, Condon. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

The observance of Sunday closing will be an innovation for Gilliam county and Condon. The movement has been favored by a majority of the business men of the county for some time but on account of the busy season during harvest, it was thought best to wait. Now that the edict has gone forth for the Sunday closing of all places of business, except those exempted by the law, no hardships will be brought to bear upon anyone in particular. Many other counties in this state, that are now and have been for many months under this ban, are satisfied with the results of the enforcement of the Sunday observance laws. All are glad to be able to enjoy one day of rest before beginning the duties of another week. The enforcement of the law may work a hardship on some of us until we become acquainted with this new mode of living—for such it will be to Condon—but being law abiding citizens we all shall aid the officers in the full enforcement of the observance of the Sabbath.

Heavy liquidation, due to the stringency of the money market, caused a 4-cent decline in wheat prices on the Chicago exchange Monday. The break came in the first 15 minutes of trading. The situation is similar from day to day, falls and rallies. The tone of the market is quiet but steady and buying is far from active. The early decline was caused by heavy selling, brought about by the financial situation.

"We use our eyes every second of the day, our brains less often," says an editor. We suspected that from the way people let the politicians lead them around by the nose.

After Mr. Taft gets through reassuring the Filipinos and a few more people who are feeling nervous, he should come home and reassure his campaign managers a bit.

The Virginia gentleman who has been trying to get George Washington's name on the roll of the Ananias Club, is liable to get called down for taking such a step without the advice and consent of its distinguished founder.

A St. Louis contemporary says Mr. Taft is our first war minister to go around the world talking peace. Just think of the splendid dinner invitations he would miss by going around talking fight.

"Heavy firing" has been reported from the President's camp in Louisiana, but it is only when heavy firing is reported from the White House, that the officeholders begin to get uneasy.

"Ireland has over 30,000 goats" declares the Los Angeles Times. And yet Ireland does very little butting in the affairs of the world.

R. L. Hunt sold four graphophones during the past week—one to Jas. Smith of the S. B. Barker Co., one to J. J. Fehrenbacher of Gwendolen, one to Chas. Owens of Ferry Canyon, and one to Al Moore.

John Jackson returned from Portland Tuesday, after spending a week with relatives and buying a stock of Christmas novelties.

Vance Taylor of Corvallis visited over Sunday in Condon at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Smith.

Chas. H. Williams was called to Portland Tuesday morning, by the State Association of Retail Jewelers, to report the proceedings of the meeting of the National Convention of Jewelers which he attended last month in Chicago.
