COURT CONDON, N. M. F. OF A. MEETing Monday evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

The clearing house capsule seems to be an excellent tonic after a long and exhausting run.

This is the first time that Wall Street ever found out how much it really loved the Secretary of the Treasury.

After two defeats for the presidency, it is said that William Jennings Bryan is a millionaire. Another such failure as this, and he will have to hate himself for being a plutocrat.

Those New York bankers "saved the situation" by loaning a few million at six per cent. As the situation was mostly of their own making and six per cent was the legal rate of interest, this does not seem to have been such a remarkable move after all.

Annie Besant claims that a man's soul is not likely to be incarnated in a woman's body for 1,500 years. That's some consolation, anyhow, to a man who has a horror of bargain sales.

After the Fall campaign in various States, truth will slowly rise again, but it's a pretty safe bet that she will need crutches to get around with for a while.

The present money situation is improving from week to week and business is keeping on as if there had never been a scarcity of the "Almighty Dollar." Yet it is said that many of the farmers in this vicinity who had contracted their wheat and sold are the ones who are suffering as they cannot secure payments at this time while they are forced to pay debts contracted during the season. There is no doubt that the present difficulty in securing money in large amounts will cause many hardships throughout the country. The banks, however, are in good standing and are paying money in small quantities to appease the wants of the people.

Basketball has been the latest subject discussed and several young men and young ladies are talking the matter over with a view of organizing. A hall will be secured where practice games can be held. The value of the exercise received from this game during the long winter months would be wonderful and would prove to be a great benefit. It is hoped that many of the young people can be induced to look favorably upon the game. A team of young men and one of young ladies could be easily picked from the large amount of good material in Condon and games played with teams of other towns. Push the good work along!
