quested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

Prof. Joseph H. Drake, of the law department of the University of Michigan, wants to crown Theodore Roosevelt king of this country. Well, he might pick out a worse fellow than Teddy.—The Dalles Chronicle.

Canada has sent a special envoy to Japan to tell the Mikado that he must limit immigration or there will be an abrogation of the treaty. That is certainly a most impudent mission.

Would Mr. Cortelyou be as hysterically active in relieving the financial distress of "poverty lane" as he was in relieving Wall Street?

A verdict of $14,000 damage against five college students for hazing a classmate is likely to discourage this form of amusement in that particular college and perhaps others. The Illinois court responsible for this decision, has done a public service.

The Philippines are starting in on their promised home rule. Cuba is wondering what they will do with it.

"There is need of more currency," declares the New York Times. Indisputably!

Oklahoma was admitted into the Union as a state on November 16, thus increasing the number to 46 states. The additional star will not appear on the flag till after July 4th next. Oklahoma comes in with a constitution regulating corporations, restricting exploiting combinations, and is so socialistic that its career will be watched for some time. Nevertheless the new state is welcomed into the Union.

Now is time to see to it that all your farm tools and machinery are carefully put away for the winter. Did you ever stop to count up how much money you have invested in your machinery? If not, do so and you will see how important it is that you take special pains to prolong its term of usefulness.

Lawlessness seems to have broken the tranquility of several Eastern Oregon towns. For example the terrifying scenes and gun plays, a reminiscence of former days when the cowboy ruled this section of the country, which took place at Lone last week was certainly a disgrace to humanity. Such actions have been brought closer to home and, although no gun play was carried out, the scenes were equally disgraceful. The wild, loud shouting and profane language was a horror to all within range of hearing to say nothing of insulting to women who happened to be on the streets.
