COURT CONDON, NO. 34, F. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Attorney Hall lodge room. Visiting brethren are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

Secretary Cortelyou is trying to impress us with the fact that stockings were made to be worn and not to hoard money in.

Believing that business conditions are good will help to make them so. But they are good whether anyone wants to believe it or not.

Those Russians are doing all they can to make Secretary Taft feel at home. He had a narrow escape from a railroad accident on the trans-Siberian road just as if he was traveling in America.

The Sixtieth Congress opened Monday morning. The striking scenes of the day was the fight for the speakership of the House, between Joseph G. Cannon and the democratic representative, John Sharp Williams. Cannon was re-elected by an overwhelming majority and Joe began telling the assembly what's what. The Democrats denounced the rules of the last Congress but when in came to a vote the same were adopted.

For the first time in some years a united, active and honorable delegation will present the claims, and look after the interests of Oregon in Congress. Having emerged from the valley of humiliation incident to land-fraud disclosures our people are now in position to hold up their heads and ask, through their representatives, for what they want with the reasonable assurance that they will receive respectful consideration.

At the meeting of the representatives of the different commercial bodies of the state the first of the week, was shown the great confidence being placed in the Portland Clearing House during the financial stringency. The body decided not to ask the Governor to call an extra session of the legislature at this time, but after debating the bank situation and the need of resuming judicial business, resolutions were adopted and have already been presented to the Governor, requesting him to continue the legal holidays for a period not to exceed ten days after banks of the East resume specie payments. Governor Chamberlain has already made it known that he would not call an extra session of the Legislature as he deemed such an act one of questionable propriety. It is his opinion that the holidays will be continued until the first of the year, however, he shall follow the general consensus of opinion of the people of the state at large. The Governor has also enforced the idea that the demand for the continuation of the holidays comes even more strongly from business interests than from the banks.

WILD WITH EXCITEMENT!

Gondon, Oregon in a Fever of Excitement over the Wonderful CURES

Performed by Dr. Madison The Great American SPECIALIST

Deaf Made to Hear
Lame to Walk

OPERA HOUSE PACKED.
Nothing Like it Ever Seen in Condon Before.

Dr. Madison and staff of the Medical Institute of Liverpool, Eng., and Crawfordsville, Indiana, branch office Portland, Oregon, lectured to a large audience Monday night. The doctors are agreeable and forceful speakers and held the audience in close attention while they explained the theory and usefulness of their wonderful discoveries.

Many promises were made which seemed utterly impossible to believe and when the doctor invited those who were hard of hearing to come forward and be cured, Mrs. J. J. McLane, Mr. G. T. Spencer and Mrs. J. C. Nuckolls responded to the call and were made to hear in a whisper in a few seconds.

The doctor then called for cripples on crutches and Mrs. Tom Ferguson responded.

She was afflicted with that giant disease, rheumatism, for 12 years, and she was unable to walk, having to be carried to the opera house in a chair, perfectly helpless, and was operated on with medicine for 20 minutes and walked off the stage free from pain and stiffness, followed by the wondering crowd. To say that the audience was astonished and wild would be putting it mildly. The doctor was warmly congratulated. It seemed like a dream but it was real. Ministers and doctors were in the audience and they seemed as well pleased as any.

They treat the following diseases: Paralysis, catarrh, deafness, big neck, bladder and kidney diseases, rheumatism, scrofula, loss of manly vigor, female diseases, bowel complaint, debility, dropsy, heart, liver and nerve diseases, tape worm, sore legs, all ear and eye diseases, cancers, piles and fistula cured without pain, and all kinds of chronic diseases treated.
