

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Bro. Stewart of the Fossil Journal was a business visitor in Condon the latter part of last week.

Mrs. G. J. Brown, who came up from Redding, Calif., a few days ago to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Jos. Whyte, left last Saturday for Dunsmuir, California, where Mr. Brown in the employ of a large electric company, has charge of the electric block signals over a division of the railroad. It is a most responsible position and Jay's many friends in and around Condon will be glad to hear of his success.

I. A. Johnson, the manager of the Fossil Mercantile Co., accompanied by his wife, was in Condon last week. Mrs. Johnson went below for a few weeks' visit with friends and Mr. Johnson returned to Fossil Saturday morning.

This office is in receipt of a new official directory of the state of Oregon compiled and issued by Frank W. Benson, secretary of state. It contains the constitution, the list of state, district and county officers and other valuable information.

According to The Dalles Chronicle that city is afflicted with the religious meetings of that strange, emotional sect known as the Apostolic Faith or Pentecostal Christians. They claim the power to speak in tongues, but in a communication to the Chronicle the writer refers to their meetings as a burlesque and says that the tongues that they speak sounds like the babblings of an infant or the jargon heard in an insane asylum. Their faith was started in Los Angeles by a negro woman who was the first to be blessed with the gift of tongues. LATER: The leader has been arrested and fined for disturbing the peace and the sect barred from the city.

Remember your friends will appreciate your photo for that Xmas present more than anything else. Also remember that Merrifield will not be with us much longer.
