

Mikkalo.

Just a little more snow, if you please.

The holidays have come and gone and so has some of our hard earned dough.

E. J. Clough has shipped two car loads of slab wood to this station from Arlington.

The rains of the past week have set the plow teams going. Also the tar weed.

John Mikkalo, one of our most prosperous farmers, is taking advantage of the good weather and has two plow teams going.

Wheat hauling is almost finished with the exception of a few farmers who did their seeding before hauling.

About 75,000 sacks of grain has been delivered at this station this season. Not so bad.

H. D. Randall of Olex and A. A. Carrothers of Rock Creek made a business trip to Condon last Friday.

Miss Hazel Cooper, who is teaching school at this place, spent the holidays with friends in Condon.

Mrs. Frank Little spent X-mas with her folks on Rock Creek.

Harvey Thomas spent the holidays at Goldendale, whether with relatives or some one else, we haven't as yet learned.

Chas. Patterson, foreman of the S. S. Thomas ranch, is putting in a good supply of wood for the winter.

Frank Little is building a side walk from his store to the depot; every little bit helps to improve the town. Keep up the good work.

I say: We have a pretty good train crew on our "Condon Flyer." Treat them right, boys, and you'll be treated likewise. For you know to be continually "chewing the rag" with a man who is doing his best, makes a mean man of him. And say, dont get the Con riled up. Don't do it.

Chas. Bullard was in town the first of the week on business.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Mayville, Oregon, Dec. 27, '07.

WHEREAS: The Great Reaper of Death has again entered our Lodge and taken from our midst our esteemed Sister, Mina Morgan. We meekly bow in submission to the will of him who doeth all things well.

RESOLVED: That while Evening Star Rebekah Lodge No. 69 I. O. O. F. has lost a loyal and true Sister, greater still is the loss suffered by the family and those associated with her in her home.

RESOLVED: That we tender the sorrowing and bereaved family our sincerest sympathy and assurance of our sincere esteem for our departed Sister.

RESOLVED: That our charter be draped in mourning for a period of thirty days, and these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our lodge, and a copy presented to the family of our deceased Sister, and a copy sent to the local papers for publication.

Fraternally submitted, Geo. B. Dukek, Mary Thomas, M. M. Cushing.
