BABY IS BURNED ALIVE

Touches Warm Stove with Celluloid Comb—Clothing Ignites—Baby's Shrieks Warn Parents Only to Find Little One's Body Mass of Flames.

Extremely sad was the terrible accident which occurred at the Townley residence on Sunday afternoon, when Arthur P. Townley, the little one year old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Townley of this city, was burned to death.

The mother and her baby were in the house together, the little fellow sitting on the floor, when she went out for a minute to see her husband who had just driven into the yard and in order to amuse the child during her absence gave him a large celluloid comb to play with. Mrs. Townley had not been gone more than a minute when heart-rending cries were heard from the house and ran back only to find her baby enveloped in a huge mass of flames. As the little fellow had been sitting near the stove, it is thought that in playing with the comb, it must have struck the warm stove, the heat in a flash igniting the celluloid comb and setting the clothing on fire. Neighbors on hearing the cries of agony and pain, rushed to the terrible scene and several ran for medical aid but the flames had gotten so much headway in that short time that the clothing was almost entirely destroyed before anything could be done. The skin on nearly every part of the body was in a terrible condition, in many places being burnt through to the flesh. The ears, nose and lips were burnt crisp and the sweet baby face of a few moments before was now beyond recognition. Drs. Gavey and Donnelly done all within their power to relieve the terrible pain of the little sufferer, but the flames had done their ravages and the little fellow passed away in a short time.

Arthur P. Townley was born December 22nd, 1906 and died January 12, 1908. The funeral services were held at the family residence on Monday, Jan. 13th at two o'clock.

Julia Marie Ferguson.

Julia Marie, the two-months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ferguson, died Wednesday morning from the effects of spinal trouble. The funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon. Mr. Ferguson is at present in Malheur county and it was impossible to get him on the telephone to apprise him of his daughter's death.

Condon Leads!

It will be interesting to many people and also surprising to some of the knockers to know that according to the amount of wheat already shipped and that remaining to be shipped from Condon, proves beyond a doubt that Condon is the largest primary wheat shipping point in the United States.

County School Supt. McArthur will hold final eighth grade examinations on the following dates—January 23-24, May 14-15, and June 11-12.

WAS IN GOLDFIELD HOSPITAL

Don S. Wright, the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Downing of this city, who had so mysteriously disappeared from home in Vancouver, Wash., several weeks ago, has been located in Goldfield, Nev.

For nearly three weeks, the wife of the missing man searched untiringly for some trace of her husband but without success. She had even gone so far as to have a body exhumed at Portland to make sure that it was not the body of her husband. Sunday when almost worn out and nearly prostrated with grief and fatigue, she received a letter from her husband, written from Goldfield, Nevada.

He has no knowledge of going to Goldfield or leaving home. When he recovered consciousness, Mr. Wright was in a hospital in Goldfield and was told that he had been found ill on the streets. He had been suffering from an abscess of the brain, which broke a few days before his memory returned.

Langhausen-Glazner.

William Langhausen and Mary Glazner were quietly married Thursday afternoon of last week at five o'clock at the home of N. P. Wallace in Arlington. The ceremony was witnessed by only a few immediate relatives and friends. Both the bride and groom are well and favorably known in this community, the groom being employed in the J. F. Reisacher harness shop.

They will make their home in Condon, having rented a suite of rooms in the Reisacher building. The GLOBE joins their many friends in heartfelt congratulations and best wishes.

Griffin-Riggins.

The groom is a son of the well known Wheeler county pioneer, Thos. Griffin. The ceremony was performed by Justice Martin Johnson.

SCHOOL REGISTER INCREASING

Miss Simmons, of Sixth Grade, Resigns—C. O. Portwood, School Clerk, Appointed Truant Officer for this District by County Court.

Four more pupils were enrolled this week, bringing the total enrollment up to 210.

At our recent assemblies, Richard Hartshorn, Lorin Kennedy and Harley Frye very ably led in the discussion of current events.

The clerk's annual report shows that there are 248 children in this district between the ages of 4 and 20.

At the January term of the county court, the clerk of each district was appointed truant officer. Therefore boys look out for Mr. C. O. Portwood, who is the officer for this place.

School children are nervous over the coming mid-year examinations. The main question asked teacher during recess is "do you suppose that I will pass?"

Owing to the poor health of her mother, Miss Laura Simmons our popular and efficient sixth grade teacher has sent in her resignation to take effect as soon as her place can be satisfactorily filled.

Teachers' meeting will be held this evening at which time "Methods in Language" will be discussed. Mr. Sturgill will also talk on the "Moral Qualifications of the Teacher."

A number of pupils were absent from school last week owing to the prevalence of the mumps in Condon, but at the present writing there very few reported as being out of school.

How a Cough Starts

A cough is like a debt in that both may be easily contracted but soon become a nuisance and often mighty hard to get rid of. It takes very little to start a cough or cold. An open window, an open door, sitting in a draught, insufficient clothing, a sudden change from a heated interior to a cooler atmosphere—these and plenty other reasons are quite sufficient to cause one to realize that a cough or cold has lodged in the system. The symptoms are slight. The inconvenience is trifling. But if it remains unchecked the cough grows worse and presently it develops into a downright nuisance. The tickling sensation at first experienced is Nature's warning that an irritation is affecting the mucous membrane lining in the throat and bronchial tubes. Every cough affects this delicate membrane. The longer you cough the more affected it becomes. Presently the membrane becomes inflamed and congested. Coughing becomes frequent and painful, after which the results become more direct, dire and disastrous. It is therefore obvious that an effective quietus should, at the very outset, be put upon the cough. This is best done with WHITE PINE AND TAR WITH CODEINE COUGH SYRUP.
