placed end to end would stretch over a distance of 16,098 1/2 miles or three-fifths of the distance around the earth. Side by side they would cover an area of 577 acres, piled up in cord wood style they would take the place of 777 cords.

The farmers are most hopeful and are looking forward to a still more prosperous year. Many are buying or leasing adjoining tracts and will go into wheat raising on a much larger scale.

ROCK CREEK MAN VS. LYNX

Frank Christy Has Desperate Fight with Big Cat as a Bracer Before Breakfast.

Frank Christy, who lives on the John Day river at the mouth of Rock Creek, was aroused from peaceful slumbers a few mornings ago by the baying of his wolf hounds, and on going out to investigate, saw that his dogs had treed what he thought was a coyote.

Arming himself with a club he went to the place of combat to help the dogs kill the animal. On approaching the animals the varmit jumped into the creek bed, ran 50 yards and crawled up on the bank, with the pack of hounds at its heels bringing the animal at bay in a clump of sage brush. Christy dashed into the brush and dealt a terrific blow on the varmit which caused it to seek other shelter some distance, but still followed by its pursuers. Frank waded into the brush with renewed force.

To his great surprise a huge lynx leaped straight at him and but for the timely assistance of a large hound that seized the big cat by one of its hind legs, the hunter would have no doubt received serious injuries.

So warm was the battle raging that Christy decided to summon aid and so called his nearest neighbor, Mose McKinney, and his two sons, Herbert and Fred. They all returned to the scene of battle reinforced by two large wolf hounds. The lynx was soon overpowered but not without a wicked fight up to the very last.

As soon as it saw the crowd approaching, it started to run but was quickly overtaken by the hounds. The lynx seized the largest dog around the neck with both fore feet, burying its claws deep into the flesh. The wolf hound never uttered a sound but fastened its jaws on the neck of the cat and held him to the ground until dead.

Edith Welshons, who has been very low with pneumonia at her home in Clem, is recovering under the care of Dr. Gavey.

Mrs. A. E. Starkey of Gooseberry, who has been very sick with pleurisy, is reported as improving rapidly.

John W. Harrison, another pneumonia patient, is now well.

Jno. Mikkalo is very busy these days repairing fences on his ranch.

Miss Mae Chandler was in town Monday.

Chester Titus left for Condon Monday, he has accepted a position with Williams', the jeweler.

Mrs. Frank Little has been visiting on Rock Creek this week.

John Wienert was in town Tuesday on business.

Geo. Chandler and brother were in town last Sunday and took part in the basket ball game.

The Kerr, Gifford Co. shipped out two car loads of wheat this week from this station.

W. A. West and Herb Hawley returned from The Dalles Tuesday.

Sheriff Shut For Prohibition.

Sheriff E. M. Shutt of Morrow county, one of the most active sheriffs in Eastern Oregon, has come out openly for county prohibition and is now making an active campaign with that end in view. The recent killing of young Davis by Dan Doherty in a Lexington saloon has made much prohibition sentiment in Morrow county and District Attorney Phelps declares that Morrow will go dry at the June election on account of so much criminal court business originating in the saloons.

Orla Alice Turney.

Orla Alice, the baby girl of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Turney of Ajax, died Tuesday morning, from membranous croup after a few hours of terrible suffering. She was about two months old. She was laid to rest Wednesday on the homestead by the side of her twin brother who passed away a few weeks ago. Very impressive services were conducted by the neighbors.

Ivan Scott Hurt.

Ivan Scott Hurt died on Monday, January 20th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Kieney, who live several miles north of town. Pneumonia was the cause of death. The deceased was born on December 14, 1885, thus passing away at the prime age of 22 years. He leaves a father, mother, three brothers and five sisters, to mourn his loss.

R. E. Ormsby attended to business matters in The Dalles on Wednesday.

The surprisingly large number of people who have been suffering with pneumonia during the past two or three weeks are all improving, while many of them are now able to be out.

Dr. Gavey was called to Blalock yesterday morning to relieve the sufferings of Willie Enberg who is very sick.

Born on Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Warren of Gooseberry, a daughter. They are at present making their home in this city.

H. B. Hudson, field secretary for Oregon of the Inter-National Reform Bureau, delivered a very forceful lecture on Wednesday evening in the Congregational church. He spoke of the work the Bureau was so successfully carrying throughout the world. He also laid much stress on the future of Oregon in the way of reform work — emphasizing the local option and the results to be looked for. From the speaker's point of view several Eastern Oregon counties will go dry at the coming June election.

It was reported by reliable authority this week that a young lady in Gilliam county ate so many potatoes one evening for supper that she had to be helped away from the table. Of course that is all right as there are plenty of potatoes this year but we wish to say to the young man she has her eye on — this being leap year — that should the matter come to a crisis we will do the best we can for him by presenting them with a potato fork and masher.

M. M. Bledsoe, Baptist missionary for this district, arrived in this city on Monday's train. He will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church at both the morning and evening services on the coming Sunday.

The deal was completed this week whereby the Condon Steam Laundry was sold by C. A. Simpson to G. T. McArthur. Mr. McArthur is an experienced man in the laundry business having worked in several of the large laundries in Portland. He takes possession on Feb. 1st. Mr. Simpson is thinking of going to South America to engage in the stock business.
