

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Fred Collins, who has been working in the local warehouses, left Monday for Arlington where he will remain a few days before going to Silverton, Ore., to spend the rest of the winter. Ralph Ellsworth went along with him.

Mrs. Sherman Wade of Olex has been in the city during the past week, the guest of her sisters, the Misses Ranney. Mrs. Wade expects to return home on Saturday.

Lester Wade made the home folks at Olex a visit on last Saturday.

Miss Hattie Loftin has returned to Condon after a visit with her parents who live a few miles north of Rock Creek.

Louis Doonar, at one time proprietor of the telephone company but now of Bandon, arrived Monday evening to attend business matters for a few days.

The invariable remark of one person meeting another on the streets of Condon during the first part of the week was, "This is fine weather, isn't it?" And as invariably came the reply, "Yes fine, but we'll have to make up for this later."

Mrs. J. W. Hire was a passenger on Monday's local bound for Arlington as the guest of Mrs. W. H. Morrison.

Mrs. C. O. Portwood returned Saturday evening from a week's visit in Portland.

W. L. Barker returned from a business trip to Portland on Saturday. While in the city he attended the meetings of the Hardware Dealers of Oregon.

We notice by one of last week's Oregonians that the Kerr, Gifford Warehouse Co. had shipped the first car of wheat to leave Roosevelt, Wn. Roosevelt is across the river from Arlington and bids fair to be a very good town in a short time as there is a big country behind it.

Mrs. M. J. Simmons, who has been quite ill for some time, returned home Wednesday accompanied by her daughter, Miss Laura Simmons.—Fossil Journal.

J. C. Jones was in The Dalles Saturday on business.

M. D. Leonard transacted business in The Dalles last week.

Henry Saunders of Butte, Mont., was in town last week. He is a half brother of B. K. Searcy and on Saturday afternoon took the stage for Mayville where he will visit with Jim Jones and other relatives whom he has not seen for 16 years. He will remain in the Mayville country for a couple of weeks.

Born at Mayville on January 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Art Smith, a boy.

The warehouse belonging to S. B. Barker collapsed on Saturday evening about six o'clock making a noise that could be heard for several blocks. It seems that the building being full of wheat was too much weight for the supports and the entire structure slid to one side.

E. M. Larkin was a caller last week and ordered his Globe sent to Arlington in the future.

T. A. Brandon was a caller the latter part of last week and ordered fifty-two copies of the Globe sent to his address at Ajax.

The constant drip of water wears away the hardest stone; The constant gnaw of Towser masticates the toughest bone. The constant wooing lover bears away the blushing maid; And the constant advertiser is the one that gets the trade.

Editor Stewart of the Fossil Journal arrived in Condon Monday evening from Portland where he has been during the past two weeks as a witness in the land fraud trials. He said that the case, implicating the officers of the Butte Creek Co., was practically over.

During the past week the stage line between this city and Fossil has been crowded with Fossilites who were returning from Portland where they had been summoned to appear before the Federal Court. It is said that fully half of Fossil was in Portland during the trials and that the Wheeler County seat was practically deserted.

Mrs. Edward Dunn returned Monday evening from Albany, where she has been spending a week visiting with Mrs. Miller, formerly Miss Mollie Gibbons.

Jacob Schroeder, of the Kerr, Gifford warehouse at Mikkalo, was in town Monday evening.

Hallie Rice returned on Monday's train from a week's visit with friends at The Dalles.

M. M. Bledsoe, the Baptist missionary, for Oregon, preached two interesting sermons on Sunday last before united congregations. The morning services were held in the Congregational church and the evening in the Baptist church. Both churches were crowded to seating capacity and the missionary's words were well received.

Edith McMorris and Zeda Sweetin won envious records in all their school work during the last term of school and both have reason to feel proud. The girls, who are about 12 years of age, were the only pupils in the seventh grade who were excused from taking all examinations.

Miss Stevens of La Grande arrived in Condon on Monday's local and began her duties as book keeper with the S. B. Barker Co. on Tuesday. Miss Clarke who has had charge of the office work for several years, will take a much needed rest and will visit with relatives in Portland.
