This office received a letter from E. M. Larkin, who has been selling the Best Combined Harvester in this district during the past year, written in Portland Sunday stating that he was leaving for Haywards, Calif., where he would spend the winter. The object of the letter was to have the Globe sent to his new address as he wished to keep posted on the news of Condon and county; also saying that he was interested to know from week to week what the many friends he had made during his stay here were doing.

Some miscreant who ought to be in the insane asylum or home for inebriates played rather a mean trick on Dr. Wood one night this week. The Dr. was on the point of starting on a call in the country and stopping in at Hunt's Drug Store for a few minutes to write a prescription, he laid his overcoats down on the step outside. Although in the drug store only a very few minutes when he went out his coats had disappeared and could not be found and as he was in a hurry he took another coat and made the call. The coats were found the next day in the lot beside T. G. Johnson's barn. The perpetrator is not known for sure but it might be well to say that the man who would do a trick like this, thus impeding a doctor on a hurry-up call, must bear very little resemblance to a human being.

The Oregon Wool growers association have fixed wool sales for this spring in this vicinity as follows: Arlington, May 23 Heppner, May 29, June 11 and 30; Shaniko, June 4-6 and July 6; Condon, June 19. Cut this out and paste it in your notebook.

He is well pleased with the enterprising Washington city and although he has not yet decided as to whether he will take the charge, it is feared that Condon will lose a good pastor very soon.

L. E. Laurance returned last evening from a business trip to Toronto, Canada. Although Mr. Laurance saw a lot of country and visited the old home he says that he is glad to return to a mild climate as it was 18° below zero in Canada with two feet of snow on the ground.

Seven men came down from Condon on the local last Friday and the smallest man in the bunch was James C. Thrall, says The Dalles Chronicle. It might be stated just for information that Condon raises something besides big wheat crops.

Statement No. 1 is simply a promise to obey the people. — Yes so have them sign it.

If someone gives you the glad hand these days—beware, for he is no doubt a politician who is now before the primaries—but, of course, he is glad to see you just the same.

Soliciting your support in the coming elections, I am,

Yours very truly,

CHAS. H. HORNER,
