NO. 1.

WELL-KNOWN PIONEER DEAD

Conrad Schott Settled in Gilliam County Forty Years Ago. Was Loved and Respected. Masons Take Charge of Funeral.

Conrad Schott passed away at his home on Rock Creek at 3 o'clock Saturday morning, Mar. 21. He had been afflicted for some years with heart trouble and it was this together with other complications which finally caused his death. The funeral services were held at the house at 11 o'clock Monday and were attended by the largest following ever witnessed at a funeral in this county.

Mr. Schott was a Royal Arch Mason and the services were under the auspices of the Masons. Rev. Edward Curran conducted the services at the house at the expressed request of Mr. Schott, interment taking place in the Olex cemetery. The procession was over a mile long. The usual Masonic services were observed at the grave, Rev. E. Curran acting for the Master of the lodge.

Conrad Schott was born in Germany in 1831 and moved to this country with his parents when he was four years of age, settling at St. Louis, afterwards crossing the plains to California in 1852. He came to Oregon 40 years ago and took up his residence at the present home on Rock Creek, where he lived up to the time of his death at the age of 77 years, 2 months and 8 days. With the exception of one person he was the oldest settler in Gilliam county. Mr. Schott was loved and respected by all who knew him and his death was the passing away of one of the noblest and best known of Oregon's pioneers. He leaves a wife and seven children to mourn his loss. The Globe joins with the many friends in extending sympathy to the bereaved family.

S. A. Pattison has recently purchased all of the interest of J. E. Lancaster in the Central Point Townsite Co. and also in the plant and business of the Central Point Herald. J. E. Lancaster has gone to Rawhide, Nev. where he expects to engage in mining. Rawhide is just now considered the richest camp in the country. Mr. Lancaster will be remembered as a former enterprising citizen of Condon.

George Cronk arrived in Condon Saturday evening from Portland. George was formerly in the jewelry business here but at the present time is following mining, having some good prospects in California where he spent most of the winter.

W. J. Mariner was in Condon on Monday attending to business matters. Mr. Mariner is a candidate on the Republican ticket for Representative and with his record as a worker in the interests of this district should be elected with an overwhelming majority.

Robert McArthur left last Saturday morning with a car of household goods and farm implements for Alberta, Idaho, where he and G. T. own 120 acres of land. Their farm joins that of E. G. Merrifield.

The lack of space in last week's issue compelled us to leave out several items of great interest, the most important being an account of the entertainment given by the Stella Marris Literary society. The program throughout was excellent and received the most hearty praise from all who attended. The drama "Elizabeth of Thuringia" as presented that evening showed much hard work and study, the costumes were costly and beautiful, and in fact all who took part showed they had placed their hearts in their work. It is such entertainments which the people of this community love to attend.
