

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Jack Chandler of Clem was a Condon visitor Monday evening.

The city has a new method of collecting water rent. See notice elsewhere in this issue.

P. Bailey of The Dalles in a series of revival at the Baptist church evening.

nan handed us $1.50 this week with the request that we send fifty-two copies of the Globe to his address.

Chas. Wester of Clem came up from Clem on Monday evening. He expects to leave in a short time for Western Oregon.

Wm. Townsend, formerly of Condon but lately of Vale, returned to this city Sunday. He says it seems good to get back to Gilliam county.

Mrs. Sherman Wade of Clem, who has been visiting with her sisters, the Misses Ranney, in this city for a few days, returned home Wednesday.

Wool hauling has again commenced. John Anderson of Mayville has hauled two big loads from the Patterson camp. As near as can be estimated the fleeces average about nine pounds.

Farr Bros installed this week a new 8x10 refrigerator in their meat market. The big box was made in Portland and shipped in sections and makes a very welcome addition to their already up-to-date shop.

Mrs. Coe, mother of A. J. Coe of Arlington, accompanied by Mrs. A. J. Coe arrived in Condon Tuesday evening to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Hurlburt. Mrs. Coe lately arrived in this country from England.

Dr. Parker of Pilot, brother of D. R. Parker of this city, has sold his drug store says the Pilot Rock Record and may practice his profession in The Dalles. Dr. Parker is well known in this city and it will be remembered visited here about a month ago.

The continuance of the election cases—Bowerman vs Stewart and State of Oregon vs Stewart—were continued until after election. This is to be regretted as the people have a right in these matters that is of more importance than the interests of the immediate parties to the actions.—Wheeler Co. News.

John Fleming, representing Rhea of Montana, bought a lot of mixed yearling sheep in the Fossil country the first of the week, at $2.50 per head, delivered in Condon about May 25th, after shearing. Among those who sold were Niven Bros., W. W. Hoover, Munger Bros., Andrew Neal, and the Butte Creek Land and Livestock Company.—Fossil Journal.

The High School track team of Fossil passed through this city on last Saturday on their way home from Walla Walla where they took part in the Tri-State Interscholastic track meet. They were J. Potter, Lester Rinehart, Wm. Bowen, Edgar Donnelly, Ray and Elmer Chapman. The boys got away with a number of thirds in the preliminaries on last Thursday although unable to enter the finals the following day. However the boys feel greatly encouraged over their showing as 187 high school boys, representing 19 schools, fought for honors that day. The Lewiston, Idaho, High School won the meet by scoring 40 points and Ora Jay of Pendleton captured the trophy for the best individual athlete by scoring 21 points.

PART II.

10. Second Scene from the Dramatic Cantata, "Ruth", by J. Astor Broad.

ARGUMENT: During a severe famine in Bethlehem, Judea, Elimelech, and his family, Naomi and two sons flee to Moab. The two sons there marry Ruth and Orpha. During a period of ten years the three, Naomi, Ruth and Orpha, are left in widowhood. They bemoan their affliction and Naomi resolves to return to her home. Orpha is persuaded to go to her own people, but Ruth "clave unto her mother-in-law" and returns with her to Bethlehem.

Naomi—Mrs. John F. Reisacher Ruth—Mrs. C. O. Portwood Orpha—Mrs. D. R. Parker

11. Pantomime—Miss M. Hockett "My Faith Looks Up To Thee." Accompanist—Miss L. Ranney

C. W. Young returned Tuesday from a month's visit to the Twin Falls country in Idaho. He is very enthusiastic over the outlook there and has purchased property in three different towns besides a forty acre tract. Mr. Young has also been appointed first conductor on the new road now under way through the town of Jerome.

Lee Young, who was tried and convicted at Fossil for stealing a cow, escaped Wednesday night and at last reports had not been apprehended. He was to have been taken to the penitentiary Thursday morning.

A carload of new wagons, the celebrated Mitchell, best in the market, lowest prices. Hunt the Hardware Man.

Mrs. Pearl Jarvis left Tuesday morning for a visit in the Valley.

Our carload of buggies, received a month ago, is going fast. Come while you have large variety to choose from. All fully guaranteed by Hunt the Hardware Man.

To The Voters of the 28th Representative District:

An error made in preparing my petitions, discovered too late to correct, leaves my name off the official primary ballot. The only recourse left is to run as an Independent at the June election. This I have decided to do. Am not allied with any existing faction and know of no reason why if elected I should not co-operate freely with the district delegation to be elected in June concerning all matters that may subserve the interests of the people of this district as well as those of the state at large. WM. J. MARINER.

Oil cook stoves, perfect in operation, cheap in the consumption of fuel, and fully guaranteed by Hunt the Hardware Man.

Announcement of W. J. Edwards on a Statement No. 1 Platform.

I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for the office of Joint Senator for the Eighteenth Senatorial District, comprising the counties of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler, for the election to be held on June 1, 1908.

If elected I will, during my term of office, work faithfully for the best interests of all the people all the time. I have faith in the people, and believe in the will of the people, and therefore, during my term of office, if elected, I will always vote for that candidate for United States Senator who has received the highest number of the people's votes for that position, at the general election, next preceding the election of a Senator in Congress, without regard to his politics, or my individual preference. I am not allied to any clique, combination or faction, and I desire that the people shall say whom I shall vote for for United States Senator.

I solicit the votes of the people of all parties who believe in Statement No. 1; or in other words, of all voters who believe in "Government of the people, by the people and for the people." W. J. EDWARDS.

Announcement.

The undersigned hereby announces to the voters of Gilliam county that he is a Statement No. 1 candidate at the June election on the democratic ticket for joint representative for the 28th representative district comprising the counties of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler. If elected I will during my term of office work faithfully for the best interests of all the people. I have faith in the people and believe in the will of the people and, therefore, during my term of office if elected, I will always vote for that candidate for United States Senator who has received the highest number of the people's votes cast for that position at the general election next preceding the election of a United States Senator without regard to his politics or my individual preference. I am not allied to any clique, combination or faction, and I desire that the people should say whom I should vote for for United States Senator. I solicit the votes of the people of all parties who believe in Statement No. 1, in other words of all voters who believe in government of the people, by the people and for the people. W. F. JACKSON.

Announcement of James E. Burdett for District Attorney for the Eleventh Judicial District.

I hereby announce myself as an independent candidate for the office of District Attorney for the Eleventh Judicial District comprising the counties of Gilliam, Sherman and Wheeler for the election to be held June 1, 1908.

If elected I will during my term of office work faithfully for all the people, I will wage war on criminals, friends and foes alike, without regard to politics, position or station in life.

As to my qualifications, I will say that I am a graduate from the law department of the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, graduating in 1903 and have been engaged in actual practice ever since that time.

I am not allied to any clique, combination or faction of any kind or sort, but am independent in the fullest sense of the word. I solicit the votes of the people of all parties who believe in a "Government of the people, for the people and by the people" and hereby pledge myself to carry out the wishes of the people, if elected. JAMES E. BURDETT.
