

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Don't forget the dance tonight.

John T. Whalley, a prominent Portland attorney, was in town this week on legal business.

Mrs. Herman Pauling is in Seattle this week visiting with friends and looking on the picturesque sight of the large fleet in the waters of the Sound.

Hon. W. W. Steiwer, of Fossil, was here this week on business.

C. W. Wester, of Clem, came up from the valley the first of the week.

Frank Golden left yesterday morning for the Twinn Falls country where he will look over the new irrigated district with a view of investing. He will remain in that country for some time to take part in the drawing which will take place in about a week.

The commencement exercises of the Fossil High school will take place to-day. The address to the class which consists of three young ladies and two young men will be made by Mr. Edw. Curran, of this city. The eighth grade graduating exercises were held last evening.

Harry Murphy, son of Rev. T. Murphy of this city, arrived in Condon last Saturday from the East. He will spend the summer on the Parman Bros. ranch and thus get the full benefit of the fine Eastern Oregon summer.

Jim Cook returned from his Walla Walla trip on Tuesday evening with a hard luck story. It will be remembered that the Cook Bros. went on their trip sometime ago in their auto and after getting out of the sand in Umatilla county by tugging away and walking nine miles finally reached their destination with a broken axle. Jim brought the machine back as far as Ione but it had to be left there on account of several punctures and the breaking of several of the gears. William who remained in Walla Walla will go to Ione to repair the big car.

Dan Tierney is expected home tomorrow evening. He has been in Seattle during the past few days taking in the fleet celebration. Miss Hughes, who has had charge of the railroad office during Mr. Tierney's absence, expects to leave next week for Minnesota and the Dakotas to visit relatives and friends. She will remain about three months.

Hallie Ries leaves in the morning for The Dalles.

Sisters Baptista, Almida and Mercedes, who have had charge of the St. Thomas Aquinas School, left this morning for Aberdeen, Wn., where they will spend the summer months.

Wm. J. Mariner, of Blalock, independent candidate for the legislature, was here yesterday.

J. L. Hughes who owns the Townsend ranch has received a consignment of seventy fine Jersey Red hogs from the big Hailey ranch near Pendleton. He also intends to raise mules extensively.

Mrs. Paul Greiner left this morning for a two weeks' visit in Portland.

The pupils of the grades taught by Miss Ranney and Mrs. C. C. Cook enjoyed a pleasant outing yesterday afternoon along the banks of Rock Creek. They went down in the morning on the train, returning in the evening and from reports the children had the time of their lives. Many of the parents accompanied the children on the picnic.

The pupils of the St. Thomas Aquinas School were entertained on last Friday at the home of Mrs. Edward Dunn, the event marking the closing day of a successful school year. Refreshments were served and a photograph of the children was taken by Mr. Rollins.

Vote for the increased appropriation for the University of Oregon. Don't brand Oregon as a "mossback" state. Vote "yes" on election day. The bill has been endorsed by all the Oregon commercial clubs, teachers associations, state grange, the State Federation of labor and Tax Payers League of Portland.

H. M. CAKE SPEAKS TO VOTERS

Condon did herself proud last evening in the cordial, warm-hearted reception it gave H. M. Cake, the Republican nominee, for United States Senator, who addressed the voters of this section at the court house. From first to last, the large crowd which thronged the spacious court room gave the speaker close and undivided attention and listened to a strong, and clear-cut exposition of Republican principles.

The speaker outlined briefly the history of both the Republican and Democratic parties and showed how the former had invariably been on the right side of every measure which has called out the earnest consideration of the American voters. He showed that a Democrat, however skilled he may be, would not be able to do much for the state if sent to the senate. Mr. Cake then took up the arguments which Governor Chamberlain has advanced during the campaign and answered them to the satisfaction of the audience.

Mr. Cake re-affirmed his allegiance to the primary law and reiterated his faith in the strength of the rule of the people. He spoke of his work as an ardent defender of the Mays law at the time of its enactment. He said that if elected he would be responsible to the people only as he is the candidate of no political clique or actuated by any influence beyond the wishes of his constituents.

"I am in favor of the improvement of all our waterways and especially that of the Columbia river," said he. An open river from Lewiston to the sea will mean cheaper and more adequate transportation facilities for your products". He paid a tribute to the workingman. "It is upon the tin-bucket brigade the nation's greatness depends," said he. "You must give him the chance to earn a livelihood that he may be able to support those dependent upon him. He must not only exist, he must live. I am opposed to Asiatic immigration and to cheap European laborers coming to America who cannot become loyal Americans".

He closed by urging all Republicans to vote and to be true to the traditions and principles of the party.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Gasoline engines with water jackets are liable to freeze and burst, making very heavy repair charges if a new engine is not necessary, and the only way to escape this danger is to buy a "New Way" engine which has an air cooler for the cylinder. This makes them absolutely frost proof. And they "run right and run all the time." See Hunt the Hardware Man.
