Mrs. D. R. Parker, of Condon, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Parman of Montavilla.—Oregon Sunday Journal.

Jack Lancaster who formerly lived in Condon but who moved to Central Point and more recently of Rawhide, was here this week. Mr. Lancaster has some rich holdings in the new mining town.

Herbert Schilling who has been attending Pacific University at Forest Grove returned home Monday evening. He was in Portland during a part of the Rose festival and enjoyed the pageantry and rose displays.

J. H. Foulkes and family who have been visiting the Amends' for some time, left Monday morning for their home in Ohio. They were accompanied by Mrs. Slaughter and little son who are returning to their home in Texas. Mrs. Slaughter is a daughter of Mrs. Amend.

Frank Golden who went up into the Twin Falls country, returned home last Friday. Frank was greatly taken up with that region and remained for the big drawing but was not one of the lucky persons. Fred Wheiman who holds the second chair in the O. K. Barber shop, drew 80 acres of choice land at the same drawing.

The Globe has received congratulations for the manner in which it handled the results of the election in its last issue. The table giving the official returns from this county called forth much favorable comment. The vote received by each candidate having opposition was given by precinct and proved interesting to politicians. The table will be valuable for future reference.

E. M. Larkin, the local agent for the Best Combined Harvester, reports the sale of four big machines in this county. Two harvesters were taken off the cars at the local depot on Monday, one going to Hugh Strickland and Hans West, the other to R. W. Fitzwater. On Tuesday Mr. Larkin unloaded two at the Shuttler station, one for S. T. Bench & Sons and the other for J. L. Chandler.
