

CONDON BEATS CLEM

Players Contend for Honors on Diamond.

BIG CROWD IN ATTENDANCE

Final Score Stands 7 to 9 in Favor of Concon Grays—Echoes from the Side Lines.

Once again the baseball warriors of the thriving town of Clem had to surrender in the ninth canto to the Concon Grays before a yelling, shouting crowd of enthusiastic fans who braved dust and breeze to see the splendid finish of the matinee pulled off at the local grounds Sunday afternoon. Final score 7 to 9.

Clem had come prepared for battle and a number of recruits had been sworn in by both teams to give spice and ginger to the afternoon's sport. The visitors put up a much speedier article of ball than two weeks ago and had they shown a little better judgment at critical times, the tale of the contest would have had a happier ending. In the seventh inning the Grays found the Clem pitcher for four costly hits that brought the victory to the locals.

NEW SCHOOL FOR CLEM

Clem is preparing to build a new school house which will be a credit to that growing community. J. A. McMorris, special surveyor for Gilliam county went to Clem Monday to survey the grounds purchased by the school board of directors for the location of the new school house. Mr. McMorris lined up the grounds for the laying down of the foundations. The new building will consist of one large room and will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall term.

Finds Horses Dead.

L. E. McDaniels, a rancher living on Matney Flat, found two of his workhorses dead on Tuesday in Natt Scott's pasture, more than a mile away from the Mc Daniels home. Mysterious circumstances cling around the case which is being investigated by the officers.

Ex-President Cleveland Dead.

Grover Cleveland, former President of the United States, died suddenly at his home at Westland, Princeton, New Jersey, at 8:40 last Wednesday morning. Death was due to heart failure, complicated with other diseases.

More Improvements on Flyer.

J. C. Cooper, the new mail clerk was given charge of the new car on the Flyer Monday. Much time is now being saved by the addition of the new system. The company is considering the putting on of a new passenger coach soon—a combination smoker and passenger car.

New Blacksmith Shop.

F. M. Scrivener & Son have opened a blacksmith shop on Main Street in the Baker estate building where they will make a specialty of first-class horseshoeing. These gentlemen come from Fossil where they conducted a similar business and are known as good workmen. They invite your patronage.

Splendid Wheat Sample.

Frank Moore brought to town a sample of wheat from his ranch yesterday to show that the wheat in this vicinity is in fine condition. The sample stood three feet and a half with the finest of heads. To see such a sample leads one to discredit and forget stories of burning crops.

McKinney-Cooper.

Frederick L. McKinney and Miss Hazel B. Cooper who are residents of Blalock precinct were married in this city last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wheeler who are friends of the contracting parties. Judge Wheeler performed the ceremony in the presence of a few friends. The young people are well and favorably known among Gilliam county residents and will make their home in the Rock Creek neighborhood.

Shirk-Barker

Miss Jean Barker and Mr. Edwin Shirk were married on Sunday, June 21, in Casper Wyoming. Miss Barker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barker, of this city, and is well known here where she has resided many years and counts many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Shirk will make their home in Casper.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jackson returned Tuesday from a two weeks' visit with relatives at Spray.

WOOL GROWERS SATISFIED

Same Grade of Wool Gets Higher Price Here Than At Other Markets.

Quite a number of wool clips were sold in this city last Friday at private sales. In spite of the fact that no regular sales day was held with the presence of a large number of buyers to engage in lively bidding, the growers who sold are jubilant over the prices received as they say they got more money in the long run than did their neighbors who hauled several days to Heppner or Shaniko.

Among those who sold were: B. C. L. S. & Co., 100,000 lbs. at 14 cents; W. J. Russel, 18,000 lbs. at 13 1-2 cents; Niven Bros, 14 cents; Hoover & Kelsay 13 1-2 cents. Others who sold at prices ranging from 12 to 14 cents were Alex Hardie, W. H. Hoover and William Rettie.

It is said that the class of wool brought here sold for a cent higher than it did either at Heppner or at Shaniko.

D. S. Brown lost one of his valuable mules the past week.

Died.

At the residence of W. G. Flett, on Rock Creek Gilliam county, Ore., on the 18th day of June 1908, Mrs. Elda Jones, in her twenty-third year. Mrs. Jones was a daughter of W. G. Flett, an old-time resident of Olex. Consumption that awful scourge of the human race claimed another victim, this being the fourth member to die from this family in five years.

Death always brings sorrow but when the summoned member is a young life full of promise, the sorrow is all the more poignant. In the hour of deep bereavement, the earnest sympathy of neighbors and friends goes out to the bereaved family.

NEW COUNTY OFFICERS TAKE SEATS

The picture shows the Gilliam county court house which was erected in 1903. The building is a brick structure and equipped to meet the demands of an ever-growing county.

Below the picture follows the list of officers chosen at the recent election and who will take the oath of office on July 6, as prescribed by law.

The star after the name shows officer has been re-elected. Assessor goes in office Jan. 1st.

The other accompanying cut shows the likeness of Pearl Jarvis, the retiring county clerk, who has made a conscientious, and efficient officer. Mr. Jarvis will remove to Portland to reside. He will be missed greatly in local social and athletic circles.
