

NEWS OF THE WEEK

District Attorney-elect James E. Burdett was here yesterday.

Mrs. J. M. Johns, of Arlington is the guest of Mrs. D. B. Thomas.

Wm. Head, of Rock Creek, was in Condon yesterday transacting business.

Wm. Welch left Wednesday for a visit with his parents at Tekoa, Washington.

B. H. Wagley, of Portland, is scouring the country for fine draft horses.

The annual meeting of the Willamette Baptist Association will be held at Hood River July 1.

J. D. McDermitt, of Wasco, was in Condon, Tuesday on his way to Ajax, to look over some land in which he is interested.

Earl Beevis who formerly conducted a real estate office in Condon is visiting friends here this week. He is now a medical student.

Mrs. Dan Thouvenel left for Portland Wednesday to join her husband who is now in the employ of a paving and construction company.

Dan McDougall who took Harry Johnson's place at the Jackson confectionery, left yesterday morning for Portland to remain during the summer visiting with relatives.

W. J. Edwards and wife passed through Condon Tuesday from Summerville, Union county, on their way home to Mayville. They are now in camp on Sarvice Creek during the reunion of the Wheeler county pioneers.

The church building on Church street which has been used as school rooms during the past year is to be painted both inside and out by W. A. Darling during the coming week.

S. R. Geddies who is in the wholesale meat business in Ellensburg, Washington, was in town this week. With the aid of Jack Shelton and A. A. Carothers, they rounded up two carloads of cattle which are to be shipped to Ellensburg. Mr. Carothers will move there to make his home permanently.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dyer, of Mayville, returned from Summerville Tuesday after having been in attendance at the Rinehart family reunion which was a most enjoyable gathering.

John Delph and wife, of Missouri, arrived in Condon Tuesday evening. Mrs. Delph is a half sister of B. K. Searcy, of this city, and had not seen him for thirty-three years. She is also a relative of Jim Jones, of Mayville. Mr. and Mrs. Delph expect to remain in Gilliam county for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Edwards returned Tuesday from Summerville, where they had been in attendance at the family reunion. Mrs. Edwards who had been visiting in the valley, has gone to visit her mother at the Maddock ranch.

Dr. J. F. Wood, of this city, and Dr. H. E. Burr, of Wasco, were among the delegates recently appointed by Governor Chamberlain to attend the International Congress on Tuberculosis which meets in Washington, D. C., September 21 to Oct. 12.

J. A. Ross, of Portland, visited his sister, Mrs. Charles Kennedy, of this city. Mr. Ross is looking over Eastern Oregon with the view of locating, having recently sold his grocery business in Portland.

Geo. W. Marvel the Rock Creek rancher, was in Condon yesterday with a quarter of a ton of Royal Anne cherries, which he sold readily to the housewives and stores of the city. Mr. Marvel is very busy on his ranch and regrets he will be unable to attend the cherry fair at The Dalles.

CONDON BEATS CLEM

The game started with Clem coming home twice. Then it was that the stock of the visitors soared way up. Condon took notice and two of its representatives completed the circuit in the second canto. Delashmutt touched the leather for a safe hit to first, then Charlie Fitzmaurice made a pretty two-bagger that set everybody a-going. Condon annexed four runs in the third; Clem scored two in the sixth and again three in the eighth when for a while it looked threatening for Condon but it was only a passing cloud on the horizon. Clem was unable to reach the lead the Grays had taken in the seventh. The story of the game is related by the tabulated score which follows:

Side-Lines Topics

The Clem boys were good losers, anyway. What would a ball game be without Bert Wells' penetrating megaphone voice. There was not a single murmur muttered over any of Honest Dave's decisions. Jim Larch was true to the Clem team and had a few cart wheels along to back up his enthusiasm. Editor Fitzmaurice could hardly keep still in the grand stand. As a fond father, it was perfectly natural that he should yell occasionally for he had two sons defending the honor of the home town.

Charlie Williams was there. He came smoking a big Dutch pipe but he soon had to put it away to shout and wave his arms to better advantage. When Welschons, the Clem boy with the Samson locks, who did the twirling act for the visitors fanned Beeson, he wore the proverbial smile of a well known breakfast food. If the feminine rooters could have seen that grin they would have thought him all the candy.

Jim Cook, too, was on the spot, and the manner in which he waved that right hand at critical moments must have been inspiring to the Condon bunch. Of course, the megaphone brigade made things hideous at times. Those fellows who bet against the home team will finally "get next."

R. G. Robinson, of Lone Rock, passed through here the middle of the week on his way to Arlington to look after business matters.

A manure spreader is to be offered to the city by Hunt, the Hardware man, on condition that it be used to spread the manure in good shape which is almost daily dumped in great piles along Main street by the garbage wagons. By the way, a manure spreader is just as useful on the farm as in the city. Come see.

J. R. Williams, Nat Scott and George Perry, of the Lone Rock neighborhood, have returned from a business trip to the land office in The Dalles.

Miss Margaret Brehaut, of Portland, arrived in Condon Wednesday to visit with her mother and sister during the summer months.
