

NEWS OF THE WEEK

Brunzel & Son shipped a car load of fine horses to Portland last Saturday.

James Cameron, of Condon, came through this vicinity Tuesday with his sheep en route to summer range.—Long Creek Ranger.

H. S. Tobey, of Olex, was in Condon last Saturday attending to business matters and incidentally calling on the Globe and making arrangements for the advertising of a lead notice.

Fred Anderson and Tracy Lyons, of Pine Ridge, were in Condon Tuesday. Fred is taking to the pleasures of bucolic life with earnestness and finds it an agreeable change from handling type.

Fred Womack and family moved the first of the week from the Eberle house into the residence he recently purchased from C. E. Rickard in the northern part of town. Mr. Rickard has gone to Hood River but still retains his ranch in this county.

W. B. Fisher who has been teaching the Ajax school during the past four months, will be the violinist of the orchestra during the celebration. He is said to be an accomplished musician and he will be one of the cornetists in the band.

A most enjoyable picnic was held on Frank Springston's farm in Lost Valley last Sunday. The entire population of Pine Ridge and a number of Lost Valley people were on hand and report a tip-top time for the day. The party had prepared a bounteous basket dinner.

W. Weeks, of near a well-known grower and part berries, was in Condon for the local merchants and endeavoring to put his berries on the market. Mr. Weeks is one of the most active and most practical horticulturists in the Willamette valley. He introduced the famous Burbank Phenomenal berry in that region. The Phenomenal is the result of a cross between the "Improved California dewberry" and the "Cuthbert Raspberry", and while it resembles the logan berry it is a much better shipper. Moreover it has a brighter color and is trifle sweeter and is delicious for pies, jelly and canning purposes. "You've got a good town, here, my boy," said the Salem man, sizing-up the town. "You know it," answered the reporter. The expression was a new one for George and with a hearty laugh he extended his right hand and left for his hotel.

Frank A. Welch, secretary of the Oregon State Board of Agriculture, is mailing copies of the Oregon state fair premium list for 1908. The program is most attractive and prizes reach nearly $15,000. Many new exhibitors are securing space and several herds have been purchased to be exhibited at the fair; entries in the racing department are larger and consist of a better class of horses than ever before raced in the northwest. At Salem, September 14 to 19, inclusive.
