

Portland Business College

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY"

Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal
 We occupy two floors 65 by 100 feet, have a $20,000 equipment, employ a large faculty, give individual instruction, receive more calls for office help than we can meet. Our school admittedly leads all others in quality of instruction. It pays to attend such an institution.
Said a Business Man: "Keep hammering away everlastingly on thorough work. It will win out in the end." Said an Educator: "The quality of instruction given in your school makes it the standard of its kind in the Northwest."
Open all the year. Students admitted at any time. Catalogue free. References: Any bank, any newspaper, any business man in Portland.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

J. O. Lewis and Ed Hubert, prominent ranchers from Mikalo, were here on business the first of the week.

Misses Myrtle Wallace and Florence Seales, of Arlington, were visiting friends here during the week.

The festivities held at Locust Grove on the Fourth proved enjoyable. Mark Weatherford delivered the oration.

Miss Wayfe Hockett left for Walla Walla Saturday morning for a few weeks' visit with her brother after which she will spend the rest of her vacation with her parents in Southern Oregon. Miss Hockett expects to be away about a month.

Fred Sanders, of Lost Valley, was in Condon during the celebration. While here, he paid The Globe a visit to insert an advertisement for the sale of 160 acres of timber wood saw, shingle mill, etc. Look up his ad on the front page. It's a chance of a life-time for some one.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Andrews left for Wasco on Tuesday to make their home for the next three months. Guy who did the catching stunt for the home team is one of the most clever men ever seen behind the bat on the local diamond. The Globe will follow and keep him posted on happenings in Condon.

A REVELATION

It is a revelation to people, the severe cases of lung trouble that have been cured by Foley's Honey and Tar. It not only stops the cough but heals and strengthens the lungs. L. M. Ruggles, Reasnor, Iowa, writes: "The doctors said that I had consumption, and I got no better until I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped the hemorrhages and pain in my lungs and they are now as sound as a bell." Condon Drug Co.
