Darling-Taber

William Weldon Darling, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Darling, of this city, was married to Miss M. Charlotte Taber, of Portland, in Baker City, on Monday July 6. The bride is the only daughter of the late Clark Taber, of Portland, who recently died in that city and was buried in Baker City on July 5. Mr. Taber's dying request was that the young people should marry as they had planned and that the obsequies should not interfere with the wedding.

The groom is well-known in this city where he lived with his parents a number of years before going in business in Portland. The bride formerly lived in Baker City. The young people will make their home in Portland.

District Attorney Burdette, of Arlington, was a Moro visitor this week on business connected with his official life. Mr. Burdette is greeted with a most hearty welcome in his new field and the people will be marshaled to his support in the discharge of his responsible duties.—Moro Observer. (This is an election afterthought. During the campaign the O. man sang a different song.)

Fred Sanders offers a bargain.

The cool, refreshing banks of Thirty-Mile proved enticing during the hot days and a number of people from the Sniption Ridge neighborhood repaired to the banks of the stream to enjoy a couple days' fishing and general recreation. Among those who made up the party were the Linville, Downer and Ramey families and James Bowman and W. E. Shea. They were fishing Monday afternoon when friends a few miles away rode up to the place where the party was camping to warn them of the impending waterspout and sure enough it did come. By making haste the party got out safely. The fishermen report a good catch.

PERPLEXING PROBLEM, ETC.

mention of the shining example set by Shaniko, some of the councilmen opened their ears and took notice.

As a diversion the council turned to other business. Oscar Portwood was given the glad hand and will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Councilman Hardman and will serve one year. C. A. Simpson was elected water rent collector and city treasurer, vice Arthur Schilling resigned, at a salary of $15 per month. The matter of re-planking the cover of the old sering near the Stephenson store was placed in the hands of the street committee. The bills for the month against the city amounted to $454.77. Hugh Strickland was fined $10 for running over a city water main and damaging it.

The application of the Central Oregon Townsite Company for rights of way in the city was perfunctorily referred to a committee consisting of Councilmen Stephenson, Wood and Scott.

TO HAVE A READING ROOM.

Condon is to have a public library and reading room maintained under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., of this city. Preliminary steps were taken for the establishment of a library at a meeting held Wednesday at which time Dr. Mary Purvine was appointed to ascertain the terms on which a circulating library can be obtained from the State Library commission.

Mrs. W. L. Barker was appointed superintendent of narcotics, Mrs. L. M. Schilling and Dr. Mary Purvine were appointed on the program committee for three months. Ways and means of securing a library and reading room were discussed at some length and Mrs. Purvine was appointed to find on what terms a circulating library can be secured. By motion it was agreed upon to hold no more regular meetings of the Union till the first Wednesday in September.

Little Theater for Condon.

Frank Engelman, of Ione, was in Condon yesterday making arrangements for the establishing of a permanent moving picture show in this city. He has rented the building formerly occupied by the Condon Furniture company, across the street from the post-office. The building is to be renovated and painted. Mr. Engelman in a conversation with the Globe said that he had a first-class machine and that he would be ready for business the latter part of next week. He will show in this city three nights in the week and the remaining nights in Ione. The lone Proclaimer says: "These shows are clean, crisp and of quality that can offend none and after a long, hot day are pleasing. The admittance is small being only ten cents which is within the reach of all."

Cow Swallows Nails.

A post-mortem examination made by Dr. Taylor, on a cow which had been under his care, showed that the bovine's stomach was punctured by tacks and nails which it had swallowed.

Mrs. Mary A. Gould, of Weston a former resident of this city, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Purvine, the fore part of the week. Mrs. Gould left Wednesday morning for California, her future home.

Mrs. Chas. Burgess, of Fossil, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. F. T. Hurlburt, this week. Mrs. James Riddell was also a guest at the Hurlburt home this week and returned to Fossil Wednesday.

A. Meresse, of the Globe, left this morning for a week's outing in the Willamette valley. He will attend the Chautauqua session at Gladstone Park.

A. F. Peterson, the contractor who erected the court houses at Condon, Moro and Fossil, was in the city this week.

Dave Anderson and George Jamieson went to Arlington this morning to meet A. Anderson who is coming from Old Scotland to visit them. He may decide to locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas and little nephew, left this morning for a visit with friends at Goldendale.

John Chandler, of the Clem neighborhood, will run four combines this year. He has 4,600 acres in grain and is now cutting his barley.

Mrs. Sherman Wade, of Clem, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Lilian Ranney, for a couple of weeks, returned home Sunday.

George Weigel and family have gone to The Dalles to visit relatives. They will be gone about three weeks.

E. Curran seems to be the only real estate man, in Gilliam county who can sell land when crop prospects are poor. If you want to buy or sell a ranch, call around and see him.

Attorney D. R. Parker has come to Portland on legal business and will visit Mrs. Parker

SEALE MAY RIDE AT CHEYENNE

Local Rider Urged to Go to Represent Wheat Growers

"The West as It Was" is to be seen in Cheyenne, Wyoming, August 20, 21 and 22. The celebration will be typical of the frontier days of that growing commonwealth. This is to be a realistic reversion to the early days and the Magic City of the Plains gives itself over to the celebration and to a hospitable entertainment of its guests that is still characteristic of the free and easy west. This annual event attracts a large number of tourists to Cheyenne to see the "west as it was." Cowboys, soldiers, Indians, stage coaches and horses again occupy the center of the stage and frontier life is lived over again.

Not the least interesting feature of the celebration are the world-famed broncho bucking contests in which the champion buckaroos of the country struggle for national honors for riding the wildest and most vicious mustangs in America.

It has been suggested that Oregon should be represented at the celebration by one or two of its best riders. In Condon it is felt that Walter E. Seale, the winner of the bucking contest on the fourth of July, is eligible to be Condon's representative at Cheyenne. Seale is one of the cleverest rough riders in Eastern Oregon. He is a little dare-devil when it comes to mount and stick to the hurricane deck of a wild mustang and is one of the prettiest riders in this neck of the sage-brush country.

L. E. Laurance, local manager of the Home Telephone company, and who has been a resident of Wyoming and was in attendance at the Cheyenne celebration two years ago is among those who believe that Seale would make good and carry off some of the tempting prize money. "Is that a big affair, this 'frontier days' exhibition at Cheyenne?" quoth the Globe reporter. "You know it, it's the biggest thing of the in the world and the pick of the best riders in the country are there pitted against each other to ride the fiercest outlaws in the land. Excursions are conducted from Chicago, Denver, and as far east as New York. More than 50,000 people attended two years ago." Well do you think that Seale can make good there in the bucking and riding contest? interspersed the news man. "Sure, if he goes there with the intention of bringing back some of the prize money, he'll do it. He is going up against the crack riders of the country and he'll have to stay astride some of the wildest things that ever grew on four legs in the shape of a horse."

At the Churches.

Services are being conducted at the Baptist church each day and night by Rev. J. F. Heacock, city missionary of Portland. Services on Sunday at 11 a. m. and at 8 p. m. and each day next week at 3:30 p. m. and 8 p. m. Baptist services will be held Sunday evening. All are cordially invited.

Rev. F. T. Murphy, of the Congregational church, announces his subjects for the Sunday services as follows: morning, "The Pillar and Ground of the Truth;" evening, "I would, and ye would not."

Killed by Lightning.
Isaac Orwick lost a $200 mare this week. The animal was struck by lightning and died instantly. The mare was badly charred about the neck.

Refreshing Showers Fall.

Preceded by clouds of dust and gusty winds, an electrical storm passed over Gilliam county Monday evening. A number of waterspouts fell at various points but the damages were slight. At Pine Ridge the gardens were inundated and the road along Darling Canyon was washed out in places. The lightning played havoc with a number of telephone poles on Magee's line. Rock Creek and Thirty-mile were converted into raging torrents. The storm was followed by copious rain showers which as a whole proved beneficial to the wheat crop. In some sections the hay was damaged to some extent.
