ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM CONDON AND GILLIAM COUNTY

Elgin Myers is back again in the confectionery business at the old stand formerly owned by him on Main street. The firm will now be known as Willoughby & Myers, Paul Balsiger having sold his interest.

Miss Mabel Walkenshaw, of Lone Rock, was a Condon visitor Monday and left Tuesday for Grass Valley to visit her sister for some time.

G. T. McArthur, former county school superintendent, is in attendance at the annual session of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association which is in session at Gladstone Park, near Oregon City.

Chosen City Marshal.

T. D. Sweeten has been appointed city marshal at Arlington to succeed Jerry Ray. For a period of nine years prior to his coming to Condon, Mr. Sweeten was marshal at the town on the banks of the Columbia. Mr. Sweeten is a good officer.

Mayville Notes.

Crops in the Mayville district are looking well and if no unfavorable conditions arise, the yield in this section will be pretty well up to the average.

Deputy Chancellor Wm. Maple, H. E. Spencer and Charles E. Kennedy and Charles H. Williams, all of Condon, were here Saturday evening to attend the meeting of the I. O. O. F. lodge. Mr. Williams was initiated into the mysteries of Odd Fellowship and is a member of Mayville lodge.

The old remedies are best. Hickory Bark Cough Remedy has been in use for over 100 years by the old Dutch Dunkards in Pennsylvania, and is still in use by the families of Western Pennsylvania. It is absolutely pure; made from the bark of the white or shell bark hickory tree. The bark is shipped from the east, and manufactured in Salem, Oregon. For sale by R. L. Hunt, Pharmacist, Condon, Oregon and all dealers everywhere.

To Prospective Investors.

You may invest from $100 to $25,000 in Portland Business Blocks with R. D. Inman, T. D. Honeyman, Gov. Geo. E. Chamberlain, Dr. Andrew C. Smith and others. It paid others 12.98 per cent in 1907. It will pay you. No care, no taxes. For further particulars call at this office or write G. E. McClure, Superintendent of Properties, 812 Dekum Building, Portland, Oregon.

Back from Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Richmond and daughter, Miss Mabel, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Whyte have returned from an extended trip to Mr. Richmond's old home in Canada. The members of the party report a very pleasant trip but all are glad to get back to the Gilliam county wheat fields. They visited the large eastern cities but Mr. Richmond was well pleased with Denver and says that the city park there is the finest he has ever seen. Mr. Richmond saw quite a change in the old places which he had not seen for twenty-four years. Unfortunately Mr. Richmond was the victim of a slight indisposition while on the trip and was prevented from going sightseeing as much as he wished, since his return home he is feeling much better.

J. K. Fitzwater returned to Portland Tuesday morning after having spent about ten days looking after his interests in Condon and vicinity. J. K. is always glad to get back to Gilliam county where he has lived many years. He informed the Globe that he had been figuring with F. T. Lisco, of Portland, for the sale of his fine ranch. Although Mr. Lisco was out a few days ago to see the place, the deal had not yet been made.

Fred Parrish, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. George Parrish, who sustained a severe scalp wound last week as the result of a blow received from a windlass while at the slaughter house, is getting along well. The wound was of such a nature as to necessitate the taking of several stitches by Dr. Gavey, the attending physician.

Frank Monahan of the Murtha & Monahan sheep ranch on Rock Creek, was in town this week buying household goods to replace those destroyed by fire last week. They are at present living in the small house a short distance from the scene of the recent fire, but expect to build in a short time.

Editor W. R. Burner, of the Spray Courier, is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism and has found it necessary to leave the print shop for sometime to go to the springs to receive treatment. The Courier says that Mr. Burner is in a critical condition and that he is unable to walk without assistance.

Children's Fair.

The children are to have a part in the District fair to be held in The Dalles October 6 to 10. The exhibits will be open to the high, public and parochial schools in Crook, Sherman, Wheeler, Wasco and Gilliam counties. These exhibits must be the work of the pupils of the school. The following lines may be represented in the exhibit: Flowers, vegetables, art, mechanical, needle, poultry, cooking, etc.
