COURT CONDON, NO. 1. P. OF A. MEETS Mondays evening of each month in Armory Hall lodge room. Visiting brothers are requested to meet with us. A warm welcome awaits you.

Carrie Nation is on the trail again. She has forsaken the hatchet for the scissors. She's not after it—the direttore gown. A year or so ago, Carrie made many a bar-room famous with her little hatchet. Now she's after the gay, young ones who wear direttore dresses. While on the Chautiqua platform in Des Moines, she is reported to have made an awful, horrible, Listen to Carrie, in the act of brandishing a toy hatchet. "Just let me catch a woman wearing one of those disgusting direttore dresses on the streets and I'll tear it off of her, so quick that it'll make your head swim." Poor Carrie, how she does enjoy to hear herself talk.

The Oregon Agricultural College has issued its new catalogue for the school year 1908-09. A distinctive feature of the catalogue is the number of half-tone cuts which illustrate the pamphlet. The reproductions are excellent and give a splendid conception of the high grade and practical work done by that institution. Campus scenes, students at work, athletic teams, and other pictures revealing college life in its various phases should inspire any young man or woman to take a course at the O. A. C. The various courses are explained and other information is given. Gilliam county was represented last year by 11 students but a larger number will attend the coming year.
